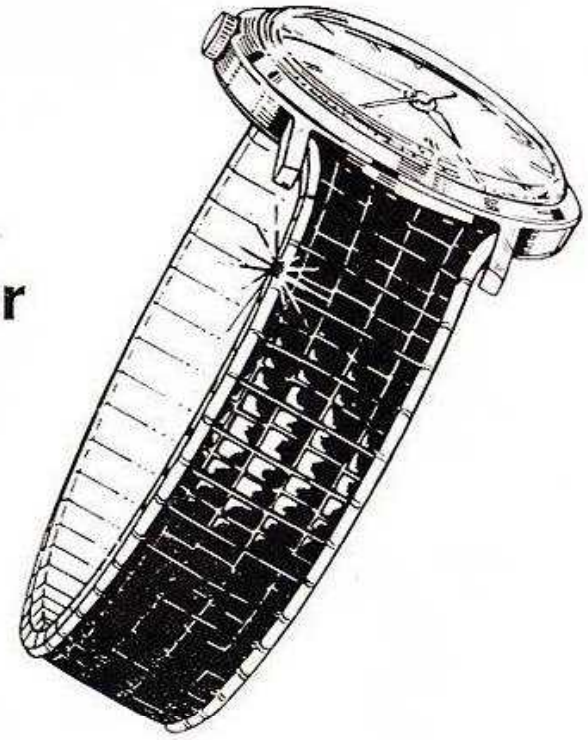
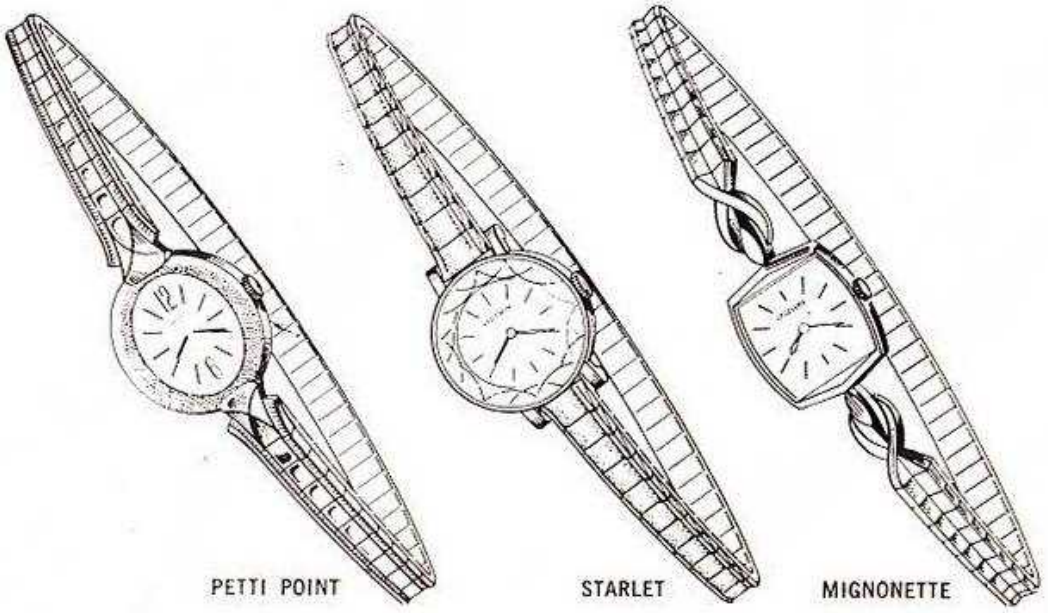
A THOUSAND CLOWNS

One of America's Most Famous Summer Theatres

Speidel does for a watch what a fine frame does for a painting.



Romunda looks and feels like top-grain leather. But has Twist-O-Flex steel construction underneath. The all-man watchband . . . with stainless steel or gold filled edges, in black or brown. From $6.50 to $8.95.



The Adorna Series

These slim, delicate Adorna watchbands are beautiful enough to double as a bracelet. Yet they are designed with Twist-O-Flex strength. Choose the Petti Point, Starlet, or Mignonette in yellow or white gold filled. $9.95.

DON WINSLOW is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Winslow of Perryville. He is in the eighth grade at South Kingstown Jr. High School and is making his stage debut this week in "A Thousand Clowns".

KEN COSTIGAN (Director) was stage manager at Matunuck in 1960 and for the Broadway production of "Gideon". Recently he produced and directed "Shoemaker's Holiday" off-Broadway. He has also directed at the McCarter Theatre in Princeton, N. J., Actors Theatre in Louisville, Ky., Centre Stage in Baltimore, Md., and workshop productions at the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis, where he was also stage manager. He trained in the theatre department at Yale University and studied at N. Y. College of Music and Fordham University. He has directed many summer theatre packages, touring productions, off-Broadway, and stage managed touring companies.

KEITH MICHAEL (Scenic Designer) is instructor-designer at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst. He studied stage design at the University of Denver and Miami University in Ohio, and has worked with the Playhouse-in-the-Park in Cincinnati and the Canal Fulton Summer Theatre in Ohio.

"WAKE UP, DARLING!"

"An extraordinarily cheerful comedy, full of laughs!"
—N. Y. News

Polly Emerson wants to be an actress. Her husband, Don, wants to be a playwright. An assorted cast of characters comes into their lives and raises havoc, much to the delight of the audience. One of the most amusing plays this season.

WHO'S WHO

MARIANNE BARRETT has done leading roles with the Barn Dinner Theatres in Virginia and North Carolina, and stock in South Dakota. Off-Broadway she was in "Summer of the Seventeenth Doll," "Maybe Tuesday," and other shows. She has appeared on radio and television for NBC and ABC.

WINSTON MAY is a graduate of the American Theatre Wing. He has appeared in "The Happy Faculty" with the Blackfriars Guild in New York. He also has numerous other New York and stock credits.

ANDRA AKERS has appeared with the Williamstown Theatre in Massachusetts, Barter Theatre in Virginia, Old Log Theatre in Minnesota, and toured New Zealand with the Unity Theatre. Off-Broadway, she was in "Lysistrata" and "The Celebration", and has appeared in the movies, "The Wedding Party", "Murder a la Mod", and "On Show".

MARK HALL AMITIN has appeared in productions at Emerson College Theatre in Boston and Jacksonville University Theatre in Florida, and has also worked with the Playhouse-on-the-Mall and Clifton Community Theatre in New Jersey and at Enchanted Hills Playhouse in Indiana.

MARIA NARDO studied theatre at Stephens College in Missouri, toured the South Pacific with USO during World War II, and there met her husband-to-be, Don Nardo, who was also in the entertainment troupe. They formed a team and for several years played night clubs and theatres across the country, then retired to raise a family. Maria has also had her own theatrical company in Natick, Mass., which she now calls her home, and last year worked at the Carousel Theatre in Framingham, Mass.

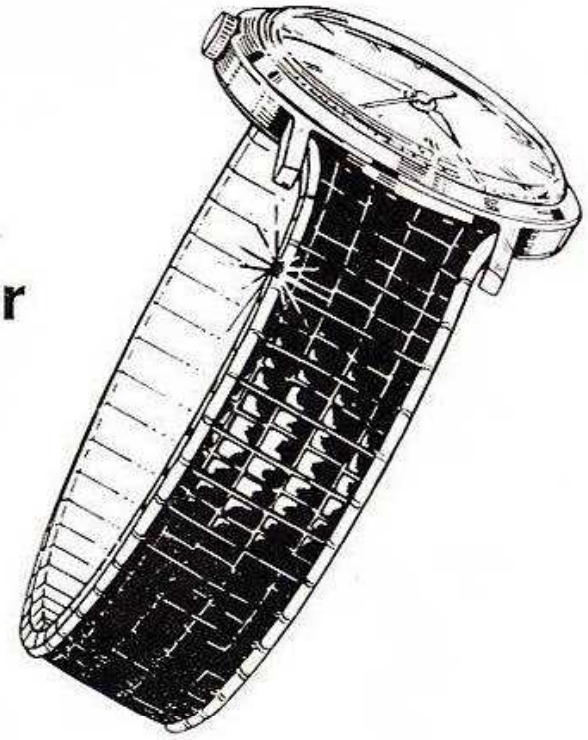
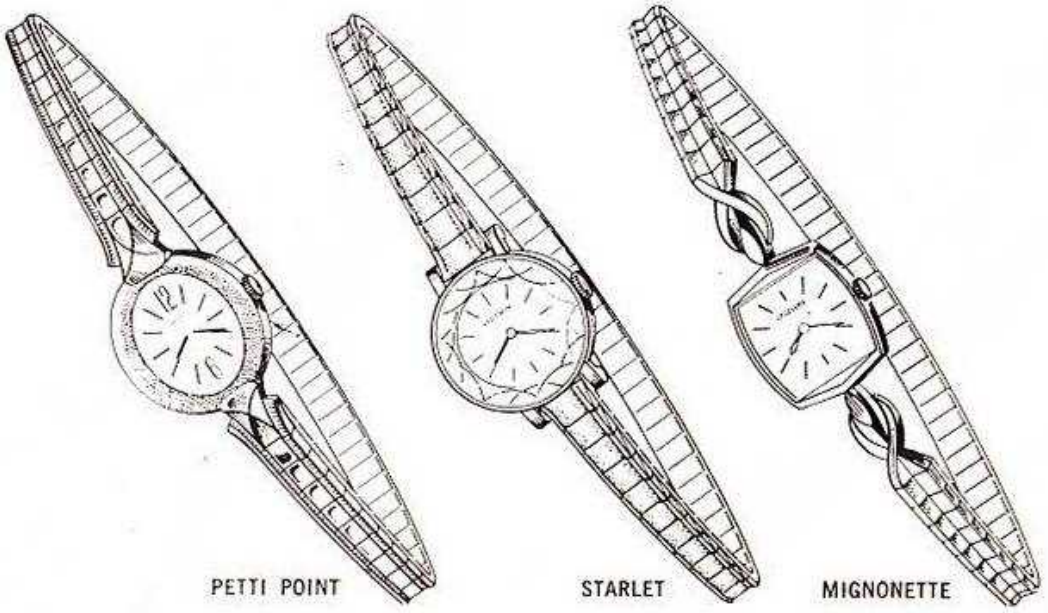
THE ODD COUPLE

One of America's Most Famous Summer Theatres

Speidel does for a watch what a fine frame does for a painting.



Romunda looks and feels like top-grain leather. But has Twist-O-Flex steel construction underneath. The all-man watchband . . . with stainless steel or gold filled edges, in black or brown. From $6.50 to $8.95.



The Adorna Series

These slim, delicate Adorna watchbands are beautiful enough to double as a bracelet. Yet they are designed with Twist-O-Flex strength. Choose the Petti Point, Starlet, or Mignonette in yellow or white gold filled. $9.95.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

August 14-19—"LADIES IN RETIREMENT"

A spine-tingling mystery comedy involving several eccentric women in an English country house.

August 21-26—"SPRINGTIME FOR HENRY"

A revival of the long-time favorite comedy about a wealthy young bachelor who leads a life of ease until his secretary takes him in hand and tries to persuade him to forego all his pleasant vices.

August 28-September 2—"LUV"

The most off-beat comedy to capture Broadway for three solid years.

September 4-9—"CHAMPAGNE COMPLEX"

A funny comedy about a kookie, uninhibited beauty who gets mixed up with a shy psychiatrist.

Tickets for all of the above shows are now on sale at the Box Office. For best seats, purchase them at intermission, or mail your order in early.

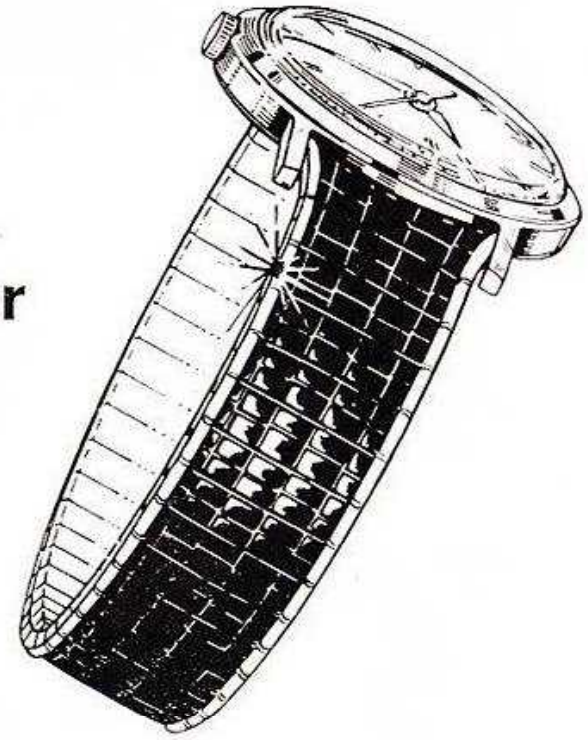
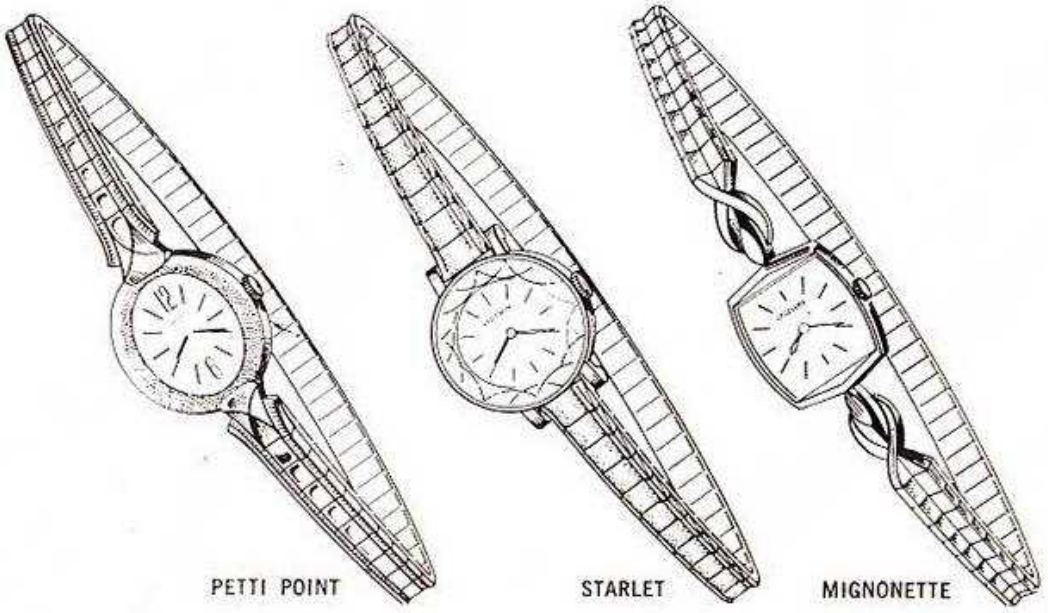
Speidel does for a watch what a fine frame does for a painting.



Romunda looks and feels like top-grain leather. But has Twist-O-Flex steel construction underneath. The all-man watchband . . . with stainless steel or gold filled edges, in black or brown. From $6.50 to $8.95.



The Adorna Series

These slim, delicate Adorna watchbands are beautiful enough to double as a bracelet. Yet they are designed with Twist-O-Flex strength. Choose the Petti Point, Starlet, or Mignonette in yellow or white gold filled. $9.95.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

August 21-26—"SPRINGTIME FOR HENRY"

A revival of the long-time favorite comedy about a wealthy young bachelor who leads a life of ease until his secretary takes him in hand and tries to persuade him to forego all his pleasant vices.

August 28-September 9—"LUV"

The most off-beat comedy to capture Broadway for three solid years.

September 4-9—"CHAMPAGNE COMPLEX"

A funny comedy about a kookie, uninhibited beauty who gets mixed up with a shy psychiatrist.

Tickets for all of the above shows are now on sale at the Box Office. For best seats, purchase them at intermission, or mail your order in early.

"NEVER TOO LATE"

This is a mad, mad funny show suitable for the whole family. The play is about a married couple with grown children who suddenly discover they are going to have another baby. Since the father is in his fifties this causes a great deal of humour among the neighbors. It's really a great fun show. Order seats early for this one.

THE COMPANY

JON JORY (Director) was co-founder and Artistic Director of the Long Wharf Theatre in New Haven. He has directed at many other theatres including the McCarter Theatre, Princeton, N. J.; Pittsburgh Playhouse; Buffalo Studio Arena Theatre; Nutmeg Playhouse, Storrs, Conn.; Clinton Playhouse, Conn.; Pasadena Playhouse; Cleveland Playhouse; Bucks County Playhouse; Cape Playhouse, Dennis, Mass., and Kennedy Theatre in Honolulu. He is the son of actor Victor Jory.

RICHARD W. KERRY (Scenic Designer) was Designer for the Charles Playhouse in Boston this past winter. He has also worked at Toronto Theatre Workshop, Storrowton Music Fair, Marblehead Arts Festival, Brandeis Forum Theatre, and was Designer for Ann Corio's tour of "This Was Burlesque" and Off-Broadway's recent "Winter Journey."

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the south for eight months in "Visit to A Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. in radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done Off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., and Emory Medical School in France.

LEE MATSON studied at Goodman Memorial Theatre in Chicago, has done TV and films, and commercials, and appeared at Elitch Theatre in Denver, Wagon Wheel Playhouse and Avondale Playhouse in Indiana, Old Log Theatre in Minn., Kenley Theatre in Ohio, and the Pittsburgh Playhouse.

LEILA HOLIDAY is also a singer and has appeared at many night clubs including Copa City in Miami, Riverside Hotel in Reno and Flagler's in N. Y. State. She has done much television — dramatic, variety, and commercials. She's appeared on the Perry Como, Arthur Godfrey, Jack Paar and Del Casino TV shows, and done many musicals in summer theatres.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" Off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

"LADIES NIGHT IN A TURKISH BATH"

A madcap romp set in the swinging Thirties, about the adventures of a cute coed who wants to cure her arachnology professor of his morbid fear of women. You can imagine the professor's dismay when a series of riotous mistakes brings him — clad only in a sheet — to a Turkish bath on Ladies Night. Funniest play of the season!

THE COMPANY

JORDAN HOTT (Director) teaches acting at the Circle in the Square Theatre School in New York. He was co-founder and Artistic Director of the Charles Playhouse in Boston, and has directed at many other regional theatres, including the Center Stage in Baltimore, and the Actor's Theatre in Louisville, Kentucky. He is a member of the Directors' Unit of the Actors' Studio, and will be producing and directing a new musical off-Broadway in the fall.

RICHARD W. KERRY (Scenic Designer) was Designer for the Charles Playhouse in Boston this past winter. He has also worked at Toronto Theatre Workshop, Storrowton Music Fair, Marblehead Arts Festival, Brandeis Forum Theatre, and was Designer for Ann Corio's tour of "This Was Burlesque" and off-Broadway's recent "Winter Journey."

DELMAR NUETZMAN has been in over 80 different radio programs, including "Cavalcade of America," and "The Road to Happiness." He has appeared in several movies, including "The House on 92nd Street." His television appearances include "Studio One," "As The World Turns," and "The Edge of Night." In stock he has played in "The Pleasure of His Company" and "Auntie Mame." His most recent appearance was with the Showboat Dinner Theatre in Tampa, Florida.

LEILA HOLIDAY is also a singer and has appeared at many night clubs, including Copa City in Miami, Riverside Hotel in Reno and Flagler's in N. Y. State. She has done much television — dramatic, variety, and commercials. She's appeared on the Perry Como, Arthur Godfrey, Jack Paar and Del Casino TV shows, and done many musicals in summer theatres.

LEE MATSON studied at Goodman Memorial Theatre in Chicago, has done TV and films, and commercials, and appeared at Elitch Theatre in Denver, Wagon Wheel Playhouse and Avondale Playhouse in Indiana, Old Log Theatre in Minn., Kenley Theatre in Ohio, and the Pittsburgh Playhouse.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the South for eight months in "Visit to a Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. on radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., Emory Medical School in Georgia, and the Faculty of Medicine in Paris.

NIKKI BRUNO is no stranger to summer stock. She appeared in "Barefoot in the Park" at the Theatre-by-the-Sea last year, and was at the Somerset Theatre in Massachusetts for six years before that. She has done many commercials and films, and toured in "Ramshackle Inn" with Zasu Pitts and "Come Back, Little Sheba" with Joan Blondell.

"A Delicate Balance"

Edward Albee was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for "A Delicate Balance," which was declared the Best American Play of 1967. Sharp crackling dialogue and the continuous interplay of ideas are the hallmark of this arresting and dramatic work by one of today's most controversial playwrights.

THE COMPANY

CHARLES KONDEK (Director) for the past two years has served as Manager of the Opera Company of Boston. In addition to his managerial duties, he also staged a production of Tosca and is the translator of Verdi's Falstaff, an Opera Company production which recently completed a cross-country tour. "Ladies Night in a Turkish Bath" is Mr. Kondek's second show for Theatre-by-the-Sea; "Generation," earlier this season, was the first. He leaves shortly to do two productions of "The Threepenny Opera," one in Baltimore and the second at the Charles Playhouse in Boston.

SALLY BAKER is no newcomer to summer stock, having done two seasons of stock in Pennsylvania and in Maine. She has toured with dinner theatres all through the South in such shows as "Never Too Late," "Billy Liar," and "Mary, Mary," and appeared in a production of "The Sound of Music" which toured Virginia. She appeared for a season with the Caravan Children's Theater, and made a recording of "Hansel and Gretel" with them which was released last winter. She has just completed an industrial film in Florida.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the South for eight months in "Visit to a Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. on radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., Emory Medical School in Georgia, and the Faculty of Medicine in Paris.

LINDA PHILLIPS has the unique distinction of having been the first "Miss United States Air Force Academy." She is also a former "Miss Wyoming." Her acting career includes two seasons of summer stock, in Illinois and Wyoming, work as an extra on Broadway, and two television commercials. When not occupied taking care of her husband and two children, Miss Phillips studies acting in New York, at the HB Studio. She has also studied at the American Academy of Dramatic Art.

LORRAINE GEISSLER currently teaches drama and English at South Kingstown High School. She worked for several years with a community theatre in Boston, and directed a number of productions for the South County Players. She worked at WPRO in Providence as Assistant Program Director for some time, and was an officer in the Women's Army Corps.

ANITA CIPOLLA, who comes from nearby Coventry, has been interested in theatre all her life. Her first stage appearances were in several high school plays, and at Rhode Island College, which she is currently attending, she has been seen in Jean-Paul Sartre's "No Exit," Ionesco's "The Leader," and "Tiger at the Gates" by Jean Giraudoux, in which she played Helen of Troy.

TED FORD has been appearing in college and community theatres for several years. As an undergraduate at Rhode Island College he played the lead in several productions, including "J. B." and "Summer & Smoke." He has continued to appear on the stage at Indiana University, where he is a graduate student in mathematics. He has appeared in several productions of the Pawtucket Players, most recently as Morestan in "A Shot in the Dark." This is his third appearance at the Theatre-by-the-Sea this season.

KAREN ERAMO, who made her stage debut last week in "The Impossible Years" at the Theatre-by-the-Sea, became interested in the theatre last year, as a junior at Indian Hills High School in Oakland, New Jersey. She joined the drama club there and did makeup and scenery for several productions. She hopes to work with the Playhouse on the Mall in Paramus, New Jersey this coming season.

Carl Reiner's hilarious autobiographical farce

"ENTER LAUGHING"

The riotously funny story of a stage-struck youth who works as the delivery boy in a sewing-machine factory. His parents want him to be a druggist, but he wants to be an actor, and his adventures and misadventures add up to a marvelously funny and touching comedy.

THE COMPANY

ARTHUR WALSH (Director) is widely experienced in all phases of theatre and television. He has acted and stage managed on Broadway, appearing in "Command Decision," and "Stalag 17" and other plays. He has faced the television cameras many times, in such shows as "The Kraft Theatre," "Studio One," and "I Remember Mama," in which he was featured for four years. "Bucky," as he is generally known, was a television producer and film unit manager as well, working with the New York networks for over fourteen years. He is well known for his work in community theatre, having directed for the Westerly Players and Theatre Workshop of Rhode Island, which he helped to found. He won the New England championship for his direction of "Our Town" in the CYO competition. Bucky and his wife, Nikki Bruno, who is appearing in this week's production, live in Westerly with their five children. He is currently employed as Planning Manager of the Electric Boat Company in Groton.

JANET CAINE, who is originally from London, has appeared at several theatres on both sides of the Atlantic. She attended the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in London, was on the stage in Canada, and has done a good deal of television work in Buffalo, where she lives with her husband and three children.

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the South for eight months in "Visit to a Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. on radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., Emory Medical School in Georgia, and the Faculty of Medicine in Paris.

NIKKI BRUNO, who is Mrs. Arthur Walsh in private life, is no stranger to summer stock or to the Theatre-by-the-Sea. In addition to her appearance in "Never Too Late" two weeks ago, she appeared in "Barefoot in the Park" at the Theatre-by-the-Sea last year, and was at the Somerset Theatre in Massachusetts for six years before that. She has done many commercials and films, and toured in "Ramshackle Inn" with Zasu Pitts and "Come Back, Little Sheba" with Joan Blondell.

BARBARA DONER has played a wide variety of roles, ranging from Gilbert & Sullivan to Restoration comedy. Miss Doner, a Yale Drama School alumna, just finished a season of children's theatre, and is currently studying acting in New York.

ROBERT J. LITOWCHAK has been in over twenty-five summer stock productions, and was resident leading man last summer at the Millbrook Playhouse in Pennsylvania. He has an M.A. in theatre from Columbia University and has made a number of Air Force training films and television commercials. He was seen most recently in the title role of Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid" off-Broadway.

SPRING CONDOYAN has appeared in summer stock and regional theatres. She taught speech and drama at Western Reserve University in Cleveland and Allegheny College in Pennsylvania. Her credits also include appearances on radio and television, both educational and commercial. She is currently studying at the H-B Studio in New York.

Proclamation

THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA WEEK

BY JOHN H. CHAFEE
Governor

For thirty-four years the Theatre-by-the-Sea at Matunuck has been providing summer theatre entertainment for Rhode Islanders, tourists, vacationers, and neighbors.

One of the few remaining barn theatres in the country, the Theatre-by-the-Sea is one of the oldest and most famous, and has endured storms, depressions, problems, and struggles to provide summer performances by an almost endless list of the famous of the stage and screen as well as television entertainers.

Welcomed each year by enthusiastic and faithful audiences, this Rhode Island landmark stands as a beacon in the South County countryside, and a facet of American theatre that provides an unusual proving ground for veteran and novice performers, alike; NOW, THEREFORE, DO I, JOHN H. CHAFEE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, PROCLAIM

THE WEEK OF JULY 28—AUGUST 3, 1968, AS
THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA WEEK

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed this fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight and of Independence the one hundred and ninety-third.

HOLIDAY FOR LOVERS

The warm and witty story of the Dean family of Minneapolis on their first trip to Europe. There are complications enough when the quick-tempered Mr. Dean tries to make himself understood in French, but the fun really starts when his two daughters discover European men! John McClain in the New York Journal-American said this play was "warm and endearing and in good taste. You can take the whole family — and you should!"

THE COMPANY

MARK HIERS (Director) started his career in Florida, after having gone to school in Palm Beach. He worked in over forty shows in stock there, directed at many theatres, worked in radio and television in Palm Beach, and was assistant stage manager at the Coconut Grove Playhouse in Miami for two and a half years. He then moved on to work with the U. S. Army Special Services and USO shows in Germany, as director, actor, and stage manager. He has stage managed in New York, off-Broadway and on, and toured the Eastern United States with several children's shows. Mr. Hiers' plans for the fall include directing several off-Broadway workshop productions of new plays, including one of his own, and a possible short movie.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

ROBERT J. LITOWCHAK has been in over twenty-five summer stock productions, and was resident leading man last summer at the Millbrook Playhouse in Pennsylvania. He has an M.A. in theatre from Columbia University and has made a number of Air Force training films and television commercials. He was seen most recently in the title role of Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid" off-Broadway.

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the South for eight months in "Visit to a Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. on radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., Emory Medical School in Georgia, and the Faculty of Medicine in Paris.

ANITA CIPOLLA, who comes from nearby Coventry, has been interested in theatre all her life. Her first stage appearances were in several high school plays, and at Rhode Island College, which she is currently attending, she has been seen in Jean-Paul Sartre's "No Exit," Ionesco's "The Leader," and "Tiger at the Gates" by Jean Giraudoux, in which she played Helen of Troy.

SPRING CONDOYAN has appeared in summer stock and regional theatres. She taught speech and drama at Western Reserve University in Cleveland and Allegheny College in Pennsylvania. Her credits also include appearances on radio and television, both educational and commercial. She is currently studying at the H-B Studio in New York.

Spellbinding Mystery Thriller

"WAIT UNTIL DARK"

This masterfully constructed thriller moves from one moment of suspense to another as it builds toward an electrifying, breath-stopping final scene. The focus of the action is an attempt by a trio of underworld figures to recover a mysterious doll which has been innocently brought across the Canadian border by a young commercial photographer. The pawn in the game is the photographer's blind wife who, alone in their Greenwich Village apartment, falls prey to the criminals' diabolic and ruthless determination. It will keep you on the edge of your seat!

DON DICKINSON (Director) is a graduate of the University of Southern California, and has an honorary Doctorate of Theatre Arts from the Pasadena Playhouse. He has done a great deal of radio and television work, including many appearances on "Studio One" in productions directed by Worthington Miner. He ran his own Equity star theatre in Allentown, Pennsylvania for seven years, and for the past six years has been co-director and production stage manager of the Lake Whalom Playhouse in Fitchburg, Mass., where he worked with practically every star on the summer circuit. He has directed many shows for Howard Richardson, the author of "Dark of the Moon," and is currently making a pilot film for a television series based on "Dark of the Moon" and other Southern folk plays. Other plans for the fall include directing a new play in Paris.

ROGER HOLLANDER toured the South for eight months in "Visit to a Small Planet" and "The Tender Trap." He has been a professional model, a D.J. on radio, and is a writer with a new play now being done off-Broadway. He attended Tufts and University of N. H., Emory Medical School in Georgia, and the Faculty of Medicine in Paris.

KERRY MICHAELS has just completed two films in New York. Previously she toured the South in a production of "The Marriage-go-Round." She was resident actress for a season at the Pioneer Playhouse in Kentucky, Associate Director and actress for the American Players, and resident leading lady at the Millbrook Playhouse in Pennsylvania. In addition to appearing on television around the country, Miss Michaels and her husband founded their own theatre in Saratoga Springs, New York, where she was resident actress.

ROSALIND SALZBERG is a native Californian, who has her Master of Theatre Arts from UCLA. She has appeared in many leading roles in Los Angeles and Hollywood theatres, played major roles in the annual Ramona Outdoor Play, directed by Victor Jory, in Southern California, acted with John Houseman's Theatre Group in Los Angeles, and played leads for a season at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany. Most recently she toured the South in the American Players' production of "Tunnel of Love," and played in "The Tender Trap" for the Holiday Inn in Memphis, Tennessee.

SUSAN KING played the lead role in "Teach Me How to Cry" at the Pasadena Playhouse under the direction of Gail Shoup. She appeared in a production of Ibsen's "The Wild Duck" at the UCLA workshop. She is a graduate of Briarcliff College, and played lead roles in several productions there, including "Summer and Smoke," and "The Crucible." She is currently studying at the H-B studios in New York, and has appeared in several of their off-Broadway workshop productions, directed by Richard Morse. She also does a great deal of commercial work.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

DE FRANC has worked in summer stock all over New England, appearing in such playhouses as the Hampton Playhouse in New Hampshire, the Weston Playhouse in Vermont, the Edgartown Playhouse on Martha's Vineyard, and many more. In addition to acting and doing television commercial work, Miss Franc also directs in the Boston area during the winter, and has appeared on Boston's Channel 7 in a workshop for new playwrights.

FRANK SULLIVAN of Warwick made his theatrical debut in 1938. He is the grandson of Dorothy Dutton, who was famous as a songwriter in New York, and his mother was both an actress and a singer. He has appeared on NBC-TV, with the Trinity Square Repertory Company in Providence, with the Warwick Women's Theatre Guild, and with the Baton Rouge (Louisiana) Little Theatre, where he was nominated for an award as Best Actor. Local theatregoers will remember his portrayal of Big Daddy in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" in East Greenwich last year, as well as his performances in "Generation" and "The Impossible Years" earlier this season at Theatre-by-the-Sea.

PATRICK MARSHALL has appeared in five movies, beginning as a young dancer in "The Red Shoes." He appeared in Marlene Dietrich's night club act at the Waldorf. Trained at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts and the Royal Academy of Dancing in London, the H-B Studio in New York, and the American School of Hollywood, Mr. Marshall has appeared in theatres and television on three continents. A brilliant dancer as well as an actor, Patrick Marshall has also choreographed dance numbers for Broadway musicals. For two years he was featured on a London television series with Terry-Thomas and Peter Sellers. This season is Mr. Marshall's first in Rhode Island.

JEAN GRZEBIEN is going into her junior year at Pembroke College, where she is majoring in English. Her appearance in "Ladies Night in a Turkish Bath" at the Theatre-by-the-Sea earlier this season marked her stage debut.

A Barrelful of Laughs

"MARRIAGE ON APPROVAL"

This is the rib-tickling tale of two couples who go off to a Scottish castle for a double honeymoon — before either wedding has taken place! Involved are the richest women in England, an elegant but cynical London widow, an aristocratic and spoiled young bachelor, and a charming older man, terrified of women. The laughs come fast and furious, and no one knows right up until the final curtain just who is finally going to end up with whom. Sophisticated high comedy!

MARK HIERS (Director) began working in theatre while serving with the U. S. Army in Germany. He worked with Special Services and U.S.O. as stage manager, director, and actor. After completing his education in Florida, he worked at Coconut Grove Playhouse in Miami for two years. Mr. Hiers has worked in New York, both on and off Broadway, and has toured the Eastern United States. His plans for the fall include directing a brace of off-Broadway one-act plays and an underground movie.

NIKKI BRUNO, who in private life is Mrs. Arthur Walsh, is no stranger to summer stock or to the Theatre-by-the-Sea. In addition to her portrayal of Claire in "A Delicate Balance" two weeks ago, she was seen here earlier this season in "Never Too Late," and appeared in our production of "Barefoot in the Park" last year. She has done many commercials and films, played leading roles at the Somerset Theatre in Massachusetts for six years, and toured in "Ramshackle Inn' with Zasu Pitts and "Come Back, Little Sheba" with Joan Blondell.

ARTHUR WALSH, who directed our production of "A Delicate Balance" this season, has acted and stage managed on Broadway and been seen many times on television, in such shows as "I Remember Mama," in which he was featured for four years. He was a television producer and film unit manager as well, working with the New York networks for over fourteen years. He is well known for his work in community theatre, having directed for the Westerly Players and Theatre Workshop of Rhode Island, which he helped to found.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

LORI ANN SOLINGER, of Cranston, has been performing in public since she was five years old. She appeared in "Carousel" and "The King and I" at the Warwick Musical Tent, again in "Carousel" with the Barrington Players, danced with the Children's Dance Theatre of Rhode Island at the N. Y. World's Fair for two years, and played several leading roles with the "TAM" Children's Repertory Company. She has appeared on numerous television shows, and modeled for The Outlet in Providence.

DON DIXON has done a great deal of radio and television work, including many appearances under the direction of Worthington Miner in "Studio One." He ran his own theatre in Allentown, Pennsylvania for seven years, and has acted and directed all over the country He is currently at work on a pilot film for a television series based on "Dark of the Moon" and other Southern folk plays, and is hoping to go to Paris in the fall to direct a new play.

"THE OWL AND THE PUSSYCAT"

The hit Broadway play of contemporary manners and morals which has become the most delightful battle of the sexes since Noel Coward's "Private Lives." The "Owl," an intellectual free-lance writer, spies on the "Pussycat," a lovely and lively free thinking gal. When he reports to her landlord that she entertains a different gentleman each night of the week, she is thrown out into the street. With no other place to go, she decides to move in with him. The ensuing verbal battle is hilarious. "Wildly funny!" raved Jeffrys of WABC. "Lots of bellylaughs."

THE COMPANY

ARTHUR WALSH (Director) who directed our production of "A Delicate Balance" this season, and was seen last week as Roat in "Wait Until Dark," has acted and stage managed on Broadway and been seen many times on television, in such shows as "I Remember Mama," in which he was featured for four years. He was a television producer and film unit manager as well, working with the New York networks for over fourteen years. He is well known for his work in community theatre, having directed for the Westerly Players and Theatre Workshop of Rhode Island, which he helped to found.

RICHARD DARROW attended Northwestern University, worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany, and in stock at Mountaindale, N. Y., Knoxville, Tenn., Carmel, Calif., and in Hollywood. He has appeared in films and on television and recently played Valere in "Tartuffe" off-Broadway. He is a professional singer and sings often in our Inn-by-the-Sea cocktail bar.

SALLY BAKER, who was seen here earlier this season in "Ladies Night in a Turkish Bath," is no newcomer to summer stock, having done two seasons of stock in Pennsylvania and in Maine. She has toured with dinner theatres all through the South in such shows as "Never Too Late," "Billy Liar," and "Mary, Mary," and appeared in a production of "The Sound of Music" which toured Virginia. She appeared for a season with the Caravan Children's Theater, and made a recording of "Hansel and Gretel" with them which was released last winter. She has just completed an industrial film in Florida.

KERRY MICHAELS has just completed two films in New York. Previously she toured the South in a production of "The Marriage-go-Round." She was resident actress for a season at the Pioneer Playhouse in Kentucky, Associate Director and actress for the American Players, and resident leading lady at the Millbrook Playhouse in Pennsylvania. In addition to appearing on television around the country, Miss Michaels and her husband founded their own theatre in Saratoga Springs, New York, where she was resident actress.

DON DIXON began his New England career at the famous Spa Theatre in Saratoga, where he began a tour with Elissa Landi in "Blithe Spirit." He has played leading summer stock theatres with Myrna Loy, Gloria Swanson, Mickey Rooney, Jayne Mansfield, and Imogene Coca. Recently he was seen with Martha Raye in "Solid Gold Cadillac" and "Everybody Loves Opal" and toured as a comedian and straight man with Sally Rand in "The Anatomy of Burlesque." Born in Norway, Mr. Dixon lives in Minnesota when not busy in New York or on location.

To Our Audience . . .

Next week will be the final production this season at Theatre-by-the-Sea. It is "The Owl and the Pussycat," the very funny comedy that will play August 27 through September 1. This will be followed by the Fall Film Festival which runs September 2 through October 13.

Many patrons have asked us how the season was this year. We are sorry to say it is not as good as it was last year. Despite the worst weather in 65 years, and the theatre having been closed for 4 years, and the bulldozers waiting to tear the place down, we managed somehow to get open last summer and business was excellent. Repairs and restoration and maintenance drained us of funds, but the season was a success last year.

This year has been different. Beautiful weather, not as many repairs, a little smoother operation, but not as much business. Everyone has an answer for this, but I sincerely believe it's this: Last year the public knew that if they did not attend the theatre it would be torn down; the weather was so poor they were bored staying in all day and sought entertainment at night; we had 3 big hit shows that each ran for two weeks, and that is what pulled us through.

This year the royalty people who lease their plays to us have declined to give us the latest shows that other theatres are playing, such as "Cactus Flower," "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running," "Don't Drink the Water," "Black Comedy," "Star Spangled Girl," and other new plays. Consequently we have had to dig into the past and come up with the best we could find available.

But I have become enlightened over the past two years. While I realize there is a loyalty to the Theatre-by-the-Sea and that many people love it and want it to be here for many years to come and to provide the type of entertainment they wish to see, still, they are perfectly normal—they want to see the latest hits, or the biggest stars—and do not wish to settle for just a good show, or for a resident company of actors.

With this in mind we will have to plan our season next year. We may be able to get 3 or 4 of the later hits; we might consider doing 5 musicals and running them each two weeks—small musicals, that is. But there will be some changes made in our scheduling.

There is no reason why a person should attend the theatre if he does not want to. You cannot woo a person by saying it is his duty to support an enterprise such as this. This theatre must be self-supporting or it should be torn down. I still believe in it and have not given up. I only hope that next year there will be enough people in the area who think enough of this Rhode Island landmark to subscribe to it even if they give some of the tickets away. To realize that if they really want the Theatre-by-the-Sea to continue on, they will have to come forth with more support than they have given this year.

To the loyal patrons and volunteers who did not let us down this year we are very grateful. Rest assured that after the struggle of 1967 to keep the wreckers' boom away, and the triumph of raising a curtain on a theatre that nearly everyone else had given up on, we are not about to be discouraged by others' indifference. We will return next summer with some surprises that may amaze you! Come and see!

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT

COMING ATTRACTIONS

FALL FESTIVAL OF GREAT FILM CLASSICS

at THEATRE-by-the-Sea

Featuring a repertory of the world's finest film masterpieces.

SEPTEMBER 2 TO OCTOBER 13

Great film classics of the past and present, directed by men who have already established their places as cinematic immortals.

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES — NO DUBBING!

The world's most controversial directors, who view the film as an art form comparable to a great painting or sculpture. Until now most of these films have been withheld from general distribution, and some were limited to small-screen television. JANUS FILMS — which previously introduced the works of Ingmar Bergman, Fellini, and Antonioni to American audiences — has spent several years collecting these magnificent classics.

SCHEDULE

Sept. 2-3—Josef von Sternberg's "THE BLUE ANGEL" starring Marlene Dietrich
Sept. 4-5—Michelangelo Antonioni's "L'AVVENTURA"
Sept. 6-7-8—Ingmar Bergman's Classic "THE SEVENTH SEAL"
Sept. 9-10—Akira Kurosawa's "YOJIMBO" — Venice Film Festival Winner
Sept. 11-12—Francois Truffaut's First Feature Film "THE 400 BLOWS"
Sept. 13-14-15—Agnes Varda's "LE BONHEUR"
Sept. 16-17—Alfred Hitchcock's "THE LADY VANISHES"
Sept. 18-19—Truffaut's "SHOOT THE PIANO PLAYER"
Sept. 20-21-22—Bergman's Academy Award Winner "THE VIRGIN SPRING"
Sept. 23-24—Bergman's "THE SILENCE"
Sept. 25-26—Clive Donner's "THE CARETAKER" from the play by Harold Pinter
Sept. 27-28-29—Truffaut's "JULES AND JIM" with Jeanne Moreau & Oskar Werner
Sept. 30-Oct. 1—Bergman's "SMILES OF A SUMMER NIGHT" — Cannes Festival Winner
Oct. 2-3—Kurosawa's Masterpiece — "ROSHOMON"
Oct. 4-5-6—Bergman's "WILD STRAWBERRIES"
Oct. 7-8—Jean Renoir's "RULES OF THE GAME"
Oct. 9-10—Adolfas Mekas' "HALLELUJAH THE HILLS"
Oct. 11-12-13—Orson Welles' "CITIZEN KANE"

Each film shown in quality prints taken from original negatives.
Award-winning shorts from directors of the new cinema and old masters.

THE COMPANY

RICHARD DARROW has appeared widely in film and on television. He attended Northwestern University and worked at the Frankfurt Playhouse in Germany. His stock credits include Hollywood; Carmel, Calif.; and Knoxville, Tenn.

J. J. LEWIS was featured in "Rose Bot in The Park" and "Ladies In Retirement" last summer at Theatre-by-the-Sea. This season she again played "Barefoot" in Pennsylvania. In September Miss Lewis enters her graduate year in acting at the School of the Arts, New York.

ARTHUR WALSH directed the productions of "A Delicate Balance" & "Marriage On Approval" as well as appearing in "Wait Until Dark." Before founding the Theatre Workshop of R. I. he was a network television producer in N. Y. C.

MICHAEL GRADY takes over the technical direction at Theatre by the Sea this week after two seasons backstage in a variety of jobs. A graduate of Northeastern, he has worked with Academy, Cranston, and Southfield Players.

TO OUR AUDIENCE - - -

This is the final week of stage plays this season, but the Theatre-by-the-Sea will remain open until October for our Fall Film Festival which begins on September 2nd. These are great films. A complete schedule is available in the lobby. Don't miss this event.

We will reopen our legitimate theatre season next June. If you are not already on our mailing list, please fill out the coupon below and leave at the box office and we will keep you informed about our plans for next summer.

One major thing we plan to do is to replace the theatre seats. In order to do this we are asking for sponsors to help us defray the cost. Therefore, if you would like to donate a theatre chair to Theatre-by-the-Sea, indicate your pledge on the coupon below and mail it to us. The cost for each seat is $25.00. When we have acquired enough pledges we will then send you a statement. Please do not enclose money with the pledge.

Each person who gives a seat to the theatre will have his name put on the chair on a name plate. The response to this plan has already been very enthusiastic and we are confident that we will be able to get 531 loyal supporters for this worthy project. We hope we may include you. A plaque will also be installed in the lobby with the names of the donors.

We look forward to seeing you this fall at the film festival and next summer at Theatre-by-the-Sea.

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT

Once upon a time, in the ancient hamlet of Usquepaugh, there was a most unusual sort of shop, that sold the nicest kinds of hand made things; beautiful and exotic candles, hardwood tables, jewelry, bread boards, pottery, crocheted sexies, lace vests, suoer blouses, mysterious macrame wall-hangings, a selection of zodiac costers and postcards, oils and a sprinkling of curious antiques. You can help to save this living fairy tale from becoming only a legend, by following these magical directions.

On #138 we drive westerly
And ride on past the University
The old train station in Kingston town
Then past the rotary round and round
Still #138 will bring us towards
South Counties' hand made treasure horde
Five miles east from Route 95
Is the end point of our drive
'Neath brightest skies and misty fog
You'll find the village of Usquepaugh

Once upon a time, in the ancient hamlet of Usquepaugh, there was a most unusual sort of shop, that sold the nicest kinds of hand made things; beautiful and exotic candles, hardwood tables, jewelry, bread boards, pottery, crocheted sexies, lace vests, suoer blouses, mysterious macrame wall-hangings, a selection of zodiac costers and postcards, oils and a sprinkling of curious antiques. You can help to save this living fairy tale from becoming only a legend, by following these magical directions.

On #138 we drive westerly
And ride on past the University
The old train station in Kingston town
Then past the rotary round and round
Still #138 will bring us towards
South Counties' hand made treasure horde
Five miles east from Route 95
Is the end point of our drive
'Neath brightest skies and misty fog
You'll find the village of Usquepaugh

Once upon a time, in the ancient hamlet of Usquepaugh, there was a most unusual sort of shop, that sold the nicest kinds of hand made things: beautiful and exotic candles, hardwood tables, jewelry, bread boards, pottery, crocheted sexies, lace vests, super blouses, mysterious macrame wall hangings, a selection of zodiac posters and postcards, oils and a sprinkling of curious antiques. You can help to save this living fairy tale from becoming only a legend, by following these magical directions.

On #138 we drive westerly
And ride on past the University
The old train station in Kingston town
Then past the rotary round and round
Still #138 will bring us towards
South Counties' hand made treasure horde
Five miles east from Route 95
Is the end point of our drive
'Neath brightest skies and misty fog
You'll find the village of Usquepaugh

ATTENTION MATINEE PATRONS - - -

Mrs. Samuel Goldman of Providence has suggested that next year we have Matinees on Wednesdays at 2 P.M. instead of at 2:30 P.M. This sounds like a good idea, for, as Mrs. Goldman says, it will eliminate waiting after the luncheon for the show to start; and it will also mean the show will let out ½ hour earlier and thus theatregoers can avoid other going-home-from-work and the beach traffic. Do you agree? Please let us know. If the majority of you wish the matinees on Wednesdays to start at 2 P.M. we will begin this policy next year. Please fill out form below and leave it at the box office or mail it in. Thanks very much.

☐ YES, I would like the Wednesday matinees to start at 2:00 P.M.

Once upon a time, in the ancient hamlet of Usquepaugh, there was a most unusual sort of shop, that sold the nicest kinds of hand made things; beautiful and exotic candles, hardwood tables, jewelry, bread boards, pottery, crocheted sexies, lace vests, super blouses, mysterious macrame wall-hangings, a selection of zodiac posters and postcards, oils and a sprinkling of curious antiques. You can help to save this living fairy tale from becoming only a legend, by following these magical directions.

On #138 we drive westerly
And ride on past the University
The old train station in Kingston town
Then past the rotary round and round
Still #138 will bring us towards
South Counties' hand made treasure horde
Five miles east from Route 95
Is the end point of our drive
'Neath brightest skies and misty fog
You'll find the village of Usquepaugh

TO OUR AUDIENCE . . .

The beautiful new carpet in the Theatre-by-the-Sea is a gift from Mr. and Mrs. George W. Phillips of Warwick and Hope Valley. We are sincerely grateful to them for their generosity to the Theatre-by-the-Sea.

As the summer draws to a close, we would like to thank you, our patrons, for your support this year. It has been a good season.

Next year, we are contemplating doing a season of musicals, with each show running 2 weeks. If a budget can be worked out that will make this feasible, it will mean our ticket prices will of necessity be raised $1.00 per seat. If rights can be secured, we would present:— "I Do, I Do", "George M.", "Mame", "Cabaret", "Man of La Mancha", "Hello Dolly", and "Fiddler On the Roof". Or, we may present one or two recent Broadway comedies, and the balance of the season would be musicals. Let us know what you think of the idea.

Our poll of matinee patrons regarding curtain time for the matinees found that 99% of the audience preferred the matinees to start at 2:00 P.M. Therefore, next summer, Wednesday matinees will start at 2:00 P.M.

Next year we will have plays and musicals for children every Saturday with performances at 11:00 A.M. and 1:00 P.M. They proved successful this year.

We hope to start our "Sunday Specials" next year, which would mean that each Sunday at 3:00 P.M. we would present a two-hour special such as Jazz-by-the-Sea; Hootenanny-by-the-Sea; Ballet-by-the-Sea; Opera-by-the-Sea, etc. If you know anyone interested in managing these events, or any group interested in participating, please write us.

One of the finest artists in South County, John Lutes, has been arranging our art shows in the lobby for the past two years. Next summer, John and the Society for the Advancement of Traditional Artists will sponsor an outdoor art show on our grounds on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, June 26, 27, and 28, 1970, from 10:00 A.M. to dusk. More than 50 top professional artists from all over the country will exhibit. Admission is free.

It is interesting to note that more groups have booked theatre parties this summer than in the past twelve years. They have found this is an ideal way to have fun together, and also to raise money for worthy causes. If you are interested in such a theatre party, let us know now, or contact us early in March or April.

Each year, hundreds of young actors and actresses apply to us for work as apprentices. Many of them are very talented but do not have enough experience to join the professional company. Their job is to help with the scenery and other work and to play the small and extra parts in our productions. We

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

ACT ONE: Takes place in the moonlight. ACT TWO: Takes place in the sun.

ABOUT THE PLAY— The idea of "The Fantasticks" was conceived shortly after Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt arrived in New York from Texas in 1955. A one-act version of it was produced in the summer of 1959. An off-Broadway producer saw the production and was so impressed with it that he commissioned the authors to expand the work into a full evening of off-Broadway theatre. Nine months later it opened at the Sullivan Street Playhouse in Greenwich Village and is now in its tenth year—America's longest running musical hit.

are only able to take ten such people each summer and they must pay their own room and board. Of ten we find that some of the more talented novices cannot afford to come with us. Therefore, we are inviting our patrons to sponsor a young actor or actress next summer by contributing $150.00 to pay for their room for the season. In this way, you may be helping some future star with his or her career in the theatre. It might be fun to meet the young person you sponsor, invite him to dinner at your home, and in other ways make him feel welcome to the area. These youngsters work very hard each summer for the theatre and seldom are they invited to homes in the area or get around to see the beautiful country and interesting landmarks. Let us know if you are interested.

For three years I have been gathering material to make up a Souvenir Book for Theatre-by-the-Sea. I hope that by next year we will be able to print our first edition. If any of you have old photographs, old programs, or anecdotes or stories of personal experiences with the theatre or stars in the past, I would appreciate hearing from you. If you have anything of interest that you think might be included in the book, we would appreciate the loan of it, especially pictures. Do not send us material now, but please check and mail in the form below.

In closing, I would again like to thank you for your attendance this season. If you are not on the mailing list, please let us know and we will see that you are sent advance information next spring about our 1970 season.

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT

Synopsis of Scenes

The action of the play takes place in and around the "Sickle and Sheaf Inn," a popular drinking establishment in the lovely hamlet of Matunuck, R. I.

The time is around the turn of the century.

The patrons of this theatre are urged to avoid disturbing their neighbors during the performance by stifling their sobs and their gasps with their handkerchiefs.

Silent weeping is permitted.

FINAL 2 WEEKS OF SEASON!

AUGUST 26th THRU AUGUST 30th

SEPTEMBER 1st THRU SEPTEMBER 6th

THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA is presently negotiating for two of the most popular and very recent New York comedies to round out this gala 37th anniversary season of Rhode Island's historic landmark showplace. While we cannot reveal the titles until they are released to us, we can guarantee that those patrons who wish to take a chance and buy their mystery tickets now will see shows offering the very best in theatrical fare, performed by members of our resident professional troupe. May we suggest that the less daring members of the audience phone the box office at 789-0221 next week to find out what treats are in store. Whatever it is, it'll be good!

* * * NEXT WEEK Producer Tommy Brent will write a personal letter in the program, which will spell out in detail the exciting future now being planned for the gallant and historic Theatre-by-the-Sea.

THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA is a vital cultural center for the performing and visual arts. It needs and deserves the active support of all the members of the community!

FROM THE PRODUCER · · ·

Tonight you will see one of the first summer theatre productions in the country of "Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris." Although this unusual show has been presented all over the world and is now in its fifth year in New York, it has only just been released for presentation by an independent summer theatre organization. It was a great challenge, yet exciting to prepare. It is different from anything we have previously attempted, and we hope we have succeeded in properly introducing Jacques Brel to those of you who have never heard his music before, and in giving an entertaining interpretation for M. Brel's devoted fans.

Columbia Records has issued an album of the songs in tonight's show. It is well worth acquiring. Due to the quick arrangement of some of the lyrics, we have to make a decision whether to use microphones and loundspeakers or to rely on the acoustics of our theatre and the talent of our singers to get across the message. We chose the latter. There is too much amplification of everything today. This is a live performance that will speak for itself.

I am often asked how our shows are produced here at Theatre-by-the-Sea; whether these are road shows, or packages; do these shows travel to other theatres, etc. The answer is that I personally cast, choose the staff and produce each show presented here in Matunuck, especially for our theatre; that this particular production, with the same cast, scenery, costumes, etc., has not played any other theatre nor does it tour when we close it. We work on a tight schedule. We had one week to prepare this production of "Jacques Brel." We will have 10 days to get "1776" open. And "Sound of Music" will get a whole two weeks' rehearsal. That's about it. And most of our straight plays get only one week of rehearsal.

This may seem incredible — and it is . . . to have only one or two weeks to prepare a Broadway musical or play — and that includes designing, lighting, costuming, building scenery, rehearsing, learning lines and songs, orchestra rehearsals, the entire thing. . . . But we do it and enjoy the challenge.

The only way such a feat can be accomplished is by having a group of talented, conscientious, dedicated people who are willing to give up any summer "vacation" in order to work hard to create live theatre. This we do have, we are happy to say. It is not easy to have a beautiful private ocean beach on the property and seldom be able to use it.

But working in the theatre has its compensations. We are doing what we want to do — and are fortunate enough to be in the theatre — and that it is this Theatre-by-the-Sea, with its tradition and character and reputation, located in such a lovely spot.

Maybe next year we'll be able to get those new seat covers, or a new roof on the building, or some of the other things we've promised ourselves and you, our audience. But deep down inside we know that you understand, and that "the play's the thing" and that's what's most important.

We hope you enjoy "Jacques Brel" tonight and come back to see "1776" next week.

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT, Producer

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

HAVE WE GOT A SHOW FOR YOU ! !

"Wait Until You See It!" It's "COMPANY" and it opens here at Theatre-by-the-Sea on July 11 and plays through July 23. It is one of Broadway's latest musical hits. It's a comedy, of course. How else can you treat marriage, its principal subject? It's enormously funny, and sometimes touching, moving, exciting, perplexing — all that is here, and more, in George Furth's candid, knowing script and Stephen Sondheim's songs.

But it's about something else, too, something hard to state, something like the real, essential aloneness of each person, and what happens to people when they try to lose that painful independence via mutual consent, love, sex, vows and a contract. Some make it work. Some don't. Many only lose themselves in the emotional mix.

Robert's problem is that he sees this all too well. Robert is 35 and single. His best friends are five married couples — all ardently, almost obsessively, devoted to him. We all know "Bobby" and we all share his friends' concern about him finding the right girl, getting married, etc. Bobby's reactions? Come next week and see. It's really a funny show. Great musical numbers such as Company, The Little Things We Do Together, Sorry-Grateful, You Could Drive a Person Crazy, Have I Got A Girl For You!, Someone is Waiting, and many more . . .

The critics loved it; so did the audiences in New York and around the country. It has just been released for summer theatres and we're glad we can bring you our version of it next week.

"A landmark musical!"—TIME MAGAZINE

"Glows with originality!"—JUDITH CRIST, Today TV Show

"Sizzles, provocative, an original and standout experience!"—ASSOCIATED PRESS

"A truly sensational musical has finally happened!"—UNITED PRESS

"An original piece of work that joyously breaks new ground, delights and astonishes!"—THE NEW YORKER

WHAT MORE CAN WE SAY ABOUT "COMPANY"?

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

FROM THE PRODUCER - - -

It took a lot of thought before I finally decided to present "The Sound of Music" here at Matunuck this summer. Of course, we know it is a great musical, with memorable songs, and a delight to see. But our audiences always want the latest, hottest Broadway hits, and we wondered whether they would care to see a revival of the Rodgers and Hammerstein show . . . or was it old-hat? Well, we can tell you right now, it is not. The advance sales at the box office indicates already that it may be the biggest hit of the season. So we suggest you get your tickets at intermission, or well in advance, for this is one show you won't want to miss! It will play July 25 through August 6.

The show tells a true story — a story that was never guessed at by the huge audiences who came to hear the Trapp Family Singers in concert halls throughout America in the late 1930's and early 1940's. The truth, that they were penniless exiles, driven from their patrician home by the Nazis, and forced to turn what had only been a joyous hobby into a professional skill, was unknown then. Later, the Baroness von Trapp published her book of reminiscences, "The Trapp Family Singers."

The musical begins with the portrayal of a novice in a convent who distresses the sedate nuns by her habit of wandering out on mountainsides to sing to herself. When a call comes to send to the aristocratic Captain von Trapp a girl who could act as governess to his seven motherless children, the Mother Superior thinks the postulant with the tendency to wander off singing would be better suited to this job than to becoming a nun. The plot shows how wise this decision is, as the postulant wins the hearts of the children, and eventually the heart of their father, teaches them the joys of singing and then helps them escape the threat to their life and liberty when the Nazis march in. It is a beautiful true-life story set to thrilling music.

A large company of more than 25 people will recreate the many great song and dance numbers here on our stage, including "My Favorite Things," "Climb Every Mountain," "So Long, Farewell," "Do Re Mi," and of course, "The Sound of Music."

Here is a show I can heartily recommend to the entire family. Our old barn theatre will really burst with the sound of music next week. Come join in the fun.

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

A GREAT NEW MUSICAL HIT IS COMING . . .

It's "PROMISES, PROMISES", and it opens here at Theatre-by-the-Sea June 26 and plays through July 8. What a show! Not only does it have a very funny book by Neil Simon, based on the movie, "The Apartment", but great music by Burt Bacharach and lyrics by Hal David, with such hit songs as the title number and "I'll Never Fall in Love Again", plus show-stopping dance numbers. There is a cast of over 30, including some of your favorite performers as well as a host of new young talent. Advance sales already indicate this will be one of our biggest hits, so we urge you to get your tickets tonight at intermission or after the show so you'll have the best seats for "Promises, Promises".

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

American heritage began in places like Charlestown Village. Today, this charming country setting, typical of historic New England, accentuates the delights of one of America's most fascinating gift barns.

Entering, you are greeted by "age-old" beams and a magnificent array of early Americana: pewter, china, glassware, lamps, period furniture, framed pictures. A wondrous display of country-store items from the past is skillfully combined with a wide selection of present favorites, such as scented Cape Cod candles, expert re-creations of heirloom jewelry, and tasteful greeting cards. Fresh candies, by the finest of manufacturers, and gourmet delicacies—preserves, syrups, spices—lend the atmosphere subtle traces of grandmother's kitchen.

In two choice specialty shops, Christmas and nautical wares are in season the year round. Everywhere, the vast interior of The Gift Barn is filled to the brim with all the nice things that make for the good life. Browse to your heart's content in every nook and cranny, and take your time deciding.

Then go outdoors and relax in the shade or sunshine as you eat the picnic lunch you have brought, in the most inviting natural surroundings. For your convenience, tables are provided at the edge of a picturesque duck pond nestled in the shelter of stately maple and oak trees. Sit and look at the scenery, or stroll about the spacious wooded grounds. Whatever your pleasure, make a leisurely day of it.

A NOTE FROM THE PRODUCER - - -

Often during the summer I am asked many questions about the Theatre-by-the-Sea: how old it is, how it got started, its history, how I became involved with it, where our productions come from, our performers, the scenery, the costumes. For several years I have wanted to put together a souvenir booklet that would answer all these questions and also provide a factual and pictorial history of this theatre, including the listing of productions presented here over the past forty years and some of the stars and celebrities who have appeared on this stage, many of whom got their start here at Matunuck.

The job is monumental and it will take a long time, but I am still working on it and perhaps by next season we will be able to offer such a publication to you. Meanwhile, the Narragansett Times of Wakefield, R. I., has just published two articles, along with photos, giving a great deal of information about the theatre in recent years. Angelo Cataldi captured the real feeling of the theatre in his story and Robert Emerson provided interesting photographs for the article. The issues are dated August 2 and 9, 1973 and anyone interested may still be able to get a copy of these articles by writing the paper.

In answer to some of these questions, the theatre is 40 years old;

the auditorium was originally a large barn and this part of the building is about 200 years old. The large stage is like a small Broadway stage, with 23 rigging lines to fly scenery. It was designed by Abe Feder, well-known Broadway lighting designer, who also oversaw the building of the theatre in 1933.

For the past seven years I have produced all the productions at Theatre-by-the-Sea. These productions do not play elsewhere. They are rehearsed and play here only. We make all our own costumes and scenery. For instance, nearly all the costumes in "Oklahoma" and "Anything Goes" were made from scratch, except for certain men's clothing and tuxedos. However, all the men's shirts in "Oklahoma" were designed and made by our staff, in addition to all the women's clothes. We have two weeks to get a show ready—rehearse, build scenery, make costumes, gather stage furniture and properties, etc.

Many theatres have travelling packages, with or without stars. This is much easier and more economical and I am often asked why we do not go back to booking star packages. I have been tempted, I must admit. But each season when I travel around and visit other theatres to see these star packages I come away more convinced than ever that I cannot and do not wish to present that kind of theatre. Some of them are very good, but not enough to fill out a season. So a producer ends up being simply a landlord who must accept whatever tenant he can get to fill up a certain week, regardless of whether the show is good or bad or awful. So that is one of the reasons we produce the way we do—use a lot of young talented performers, spend time and money creating good-looking scenery and costumes and lighting, and working harder than most laborers do today.

Is it all worth it? We think so, or we would not be here doing it. And apparently you, our audience, think so or you would not be here filling our theatre nightly as you do.

On September 2nd, the curtain will fall for the final permormance this year. Then everything will be stored away in mothballs until next Spring. And when March begins, we are again swept into a whirlwind of activity—trips to New York and Boston to audition hundreds of actors, singers, dancers, and staff people. The pondering for weeks about what the schedule will be—and then once the decision is made, we must quickly get a brochure to our mailing list and start our promotion campaign to let everybody know what shows are coming and when. And then the excitement begins—new arrivals, the long hours of toil getting the physical plant together, the rehearsals, the scenic and costume shops buzzing, all building up to the opening night—which next year will be on Friday, June 14.

Yes, we believe it is all worth it, for there still is nothing like the excitement of live theatre!

From the Producer -- WE NEED A NEW ROOF!

Off and on for the past 41 years, these theatre programs have contained a "Letter from the Producer . . ." Generally he would tell the audience about the trials and tribulations of running a summer theatre, the successes, the failures, about coming attractions, and give thanks for their support. I wrote these letters for the last seven years, but this year we have been so busy there has been little time to reflect about anything.

This spring we had installed a sprinkler system backstage, and our new fire alarm system, with connections to fire and police departments in Wakefield has just been completed. Panic bars have been put on our doors, seats have been removed for safety purposes, and many other things done to conform to the new fire laws and make this theatre a safer place for you to visit. Last year we had our stage floor recovered, installed additional tracks so scenery will move more swiftly, a great deal of re-wiring and electrical work was done to make our lighting more efficient.

Thus, though it may not be noticed, we have been spending a great deal of money to improve the theatre. The new front steps are obvious but many behind-the-scene improvements are not. And so our money has gone to make our productions better and to improve safety conditions for all of us. We still have to get new seatcovers, and some new seats, and other things, and our roof leaks. That has been leaking for eight years and patch as we may we now find it essential this roof be replaced.

As you know, this is a self-supporting theatre. We do not receive any grants or subsidies nor do we solicit donations. We have been able to have a successful theatre by producing shows we believed in with talent we believed in. Your support has proven us right.

But the cost of this roof is a big item and I thought it appropriate that I ask you, our audience, whether you would like to contribute to the new roof. I was given this idea when someone recently said to me, "I have been coming to this theatre for over forty years and it has given me and my family so much pleasure, I wish I could do something for the theatre." Well, now she can, and so can anyone else who wishes—donate for the new roof. Thank you.

Each year I am often asked who produces our shows, are they packages, where did they come from, where are they going to next, etc. The answer is this—we produce all our own shows here at this theatre for this theatre. We make the scenery, the costumes; we rehearse day and night; and each production is created right here for Matunuck. Our productions do not travel. The performers you see on stage and the staff and production workers behind the scenes, whom you do not see, work long hours to bring the best we can to you in the two short weeks we have to prepare a musical and the one week we have to prepare a play. Some people find it hard to believe that the 109 costumes made from scratch for "Nanette" and all that scenery was made in two weeks, but they were and it was. And the same goes for this production of "Hair."

We switched our schedule this summer because all of a sudden we got the rights to do the recent Broadway comedy-drama, "That Championship Season." This is the fascinating play about a reunion of a college basketball team, twenty years later. Some of the language is rather strong and we do not recommend it for children or squeamish adults, but for those of you who want to see a play that will keep you on the edge of your seats, we recommend this one. The New York critics and audience went wild about it and kept it running on Broadway for three years. It won the Pulitzer Prize, the Tony Award, and the New York Drama Critics' Award as the Best Play of the Year.

Our final production this season will be "The Prisoner of Second Avenue." This is Neil Simon's recent Broadway hit comedy about a middle-aged couple living in a New York apartment today. There's a laugh a minute and two Theatre-by-the-Sea favorites will be on stage to interpret Mr. Simon's hilarious characters—Nikki Bruno and Herb Aronson will be featured. They last played here together in "Last of the Red Hot Lovers." Previously Mr. Aronson played the leading role of Tevye in our production of "Fiddler on the Roof" and Miss Bruno has appeared here in "Nanette," "Plaza Suite," "Forty Carats," and other plays.

COMING NEXT —
"A LITTLE NIGHT MUSIC" —
JUNE 24-JULY 6

(The following article by prominent theatre critic, Elliot Norton, is reprinted by courtesy of the Boston Herald American.)

LYRICS BY SONDHEIM RARE AND BEAUTIFUL
by ELLIOT NORTON

Unless they also compose the music, the men — and an occasional woman like Dorothy Fields—who write the lyrics of the theatre's popular songs rarely get much praise, or even attention. It has always been this way in the theatre and generally in opera, too.

Stephen Sondheim wrote the lyrics for West Side Story, but that is invariably considered a Bernstein show, because Leonard Bernstein wrote the music. In Do I Hear a Waltz? Richard Rodgers wrote the tunes and only a few scholars have ever noticed that the lyrics of the show's loveliest song, Take the Moment, were written by Sondheim.

In his last three shows, Stephen Sondheim has written both words and music and has demonstrated a flair in oral composition matched by no one, not ever Larry Hart.

In A Little Night Music, the current and best Sondheim show and, as I have suggested before, one of the best of all American musicals, his skills with words are developed to their highest point in a score which has at least one hit song, A Weekend in the Country, one classic, Send in the Clowns,— a small work of theatrical art, a classic in music and in words, too— and a number of others that are far superior to anything written today.

Mr. Sondheim's deftness with words is so great it leads him to playing tricks, or games, that singing actors and actresses sometimes find it hard to play. The three part harmony of the opening song in A Little Night Music is not too taxing, but the lyrics require a rare lingual dexterity and they must be projected with full clarity because they are not only funny but also dramatically meaningful.

That opening song begins as a humorous soliloquy in which the loving husband of a sweet but very young wife wonders if and how he can coax or persuade or possibly even force her to consummate their marriage.

It develops into a duet in which the good, sweet, loving and virginal young wife wonders what she should do. It becomes a trio when the husband's grown son by a former marriage adds his musings, his complaints.

It is in faultless taste, funny and fast and just a little sad as it exhibits in words and music the desires, the frustrations and the good natural impulses of three perplexed people.

The music ripples in a long line of simple melodies, meshed into a single strain. The words flow at a hilarious tempo, fresh and funny. Sound and sense blend in a seemingly simple pattern, cresting a dramatic conflict, identifying the three characters and setting in motion Hugh Wheeler's play, which moves on from there.

It is slick, tricky, sly and truthful and there isn't a cliche in it or in any other song of A Little Night Music.

A Weekend in the Country involves even more people in a jubilant song that begins also with a single character who has just received an invitation. Since there is more than one invitation, there are a number of responses. Since everyone is delighted for his or her own personal reasons to have been invited to a weekend in the country each has his or her own lyrics.

Since they are all happy they sing exuberantly and since this is the end of the first act, they eventually join their voices till there are twelve of them in a swelling chorus of anticipation which for beauty, wit and dramatic effect, is not equalled today in the American musical theatre.

In the two years since A Little Night Music was first tested in Boston, it has played New York where it won—and deserved—all the awards, and in many other cities. This is not a conventional musical comedy. There is no kicking chorus. It tells not one but four or five stories of four or five different kinds of love: young, middle and old. It is sophisticated yet discreet, romantic and impulsive, gentle but joyous and often very broadly and farcically funny.

Although its manners are elegant and its settings and costumes, too, after the fashion of the late 19th century, and although it suggests that all lovers, young and old, are unlikely to find perpetual bliss, A Little Night Music is not solemn, but merry and merrily played.

"GYPSY" with Judy De Angeles

HAVE WE GOT A SHOW FOR YOU!

We are very proud to announce our forthcoming production of that hit musical, Gypsy, featuring our own Judy De Angeles. Miss De Angeles will be remembered for her outstanding performance as Reno in Anything Goes and as Lucille in No, No, Nanette. A large and talented cast has been assembled and we promise you a whale of a show!

Gypsy is a new and compulsive kind of show. Its dramatically sturdy libretto by Arthur Laurents tells a penetrating story of one of the most frightening aspects of show business. It is of a bullying, ruthless stage monther who drives her two daughters into show business and keeps their noses to the grindstone until one of them is a star. We are taken on a trip across the length and breadth of the land visiting the seamy backstages of tank town theatres during the 1920's when vaudeville was dying to the birth of burlesque.

The story starts in Seattle with stage mother Rose pushing her two daughters into Uncle Jocko's Kiddie Show. June, her mother feels, is the most likely to become a star. Louise is plainer and quieter, she stands meekly in her sister's shadow. A new act called Baby June and her Newsboys is conceived by Rose, and the family is off to the "big time" in Los Angeles. The act, steeped in star spangled banners, dancing horses (Louise plays the rear end), and screaming newsboys, moves to Dallas, Akron, New York, Buffalo and Omaha. Along the way Rose meets Herbie, a theatrical agent, and hires him as manager. He makes himself father to the troupe, sharing with them their meals of chow-mein, Rose's favorite food. Rose scrimps as she schemes and scrambles for bookings and billings to maintain their hand to mouth existence.

She sleeps her charges six in a dingy hotel room and makes their costumes from hotel blankets. Her object is to make her two penniless girls into world stars. The girls begin to grow up and the act becomes Dainty June and Her Newsboys. Unfortunately its quality does not improve.

Bookings are cancelled and the act moves on.

Louise wishes that Momma would marry a plain man so they could settle down. Herbie proposes but is rejected. June elopes with Tulsa, one of the boys in the act. Rose sets out to make Louise into the star. She bursts into new enthusiasm with the rousing number, "Everything's Coming Up Roses. Behind Rose lies a worrying sense of doom, a feeling that she never will fulfill her dream of stardom for her girls because it is really a dream of stardom for herself.

Finally the troupe reaches the bottom, a burlesque house in Wichita. Rose laments that she would rather starve than perform there. Louise realizes there is no vaudeville left except for burlesque. Here the clumsy Louise shoots itno stardom by becoming something different—a ladylike stripper. Three strippers dressed respectively in a ballet costume, a trumpet, and well placed electric light bulbs are used in a most exaggerated, but very funny number, "You Gotta Get A Gimmick," to indicate the difference between the usual brassy stripper and the very elegant Louise. At last Louise breaks away from her mother and goes out on her own as Gypsy Rose Lee.

Rose bursts into the plaintive "Rose's Turn" in which she sings of her suppressed talents that she has sacrificed to further the careers of the unappreciative daughters.

Said Walter Kerr, the New York Times critic, "Gypsy has one of the greatest musical comedy finishes I ever saw—and it doesn't even need it. Its generous authors have already provided it with a great beginning, a great middle and a great future. It is a dazzling, unforgettable musical comedy!"

The music is by Jule Styne, composer of Bells Are Ringing and lyrics are by Stephen Sondheim, who wrote A Little Night Music, West Side Story and Follies. There are great musical numbers, with lots of tap dancing.

Seats are on sale now at the Box Office. Pick up your's at intermission as they are going fast!

REMEMBERING GYPSY

by Liz Smith

Gypsy had the greatest overture I ever heard for a Broadway show. It still has! (I know because I heard it only recently at the Winter Garden Theatre). A press agent who used to deliver house seats to the theatre for the original production always vowed she'd go home the minute the overture ended. Instead, Diane Judge stood in the back night after night, performance after performance, unable to wrench herself away from Ethel Merman and company. She had worked for months on The Sound of Music and could never force herself to watch the entire show even once.

The brilliant writer-director Arthur Laurents, one of my choices for person I'd like to be stranded with on a desert island, reminds me how he was influenced to write Gypsy. He had read the autobiography and seen nothing in it for the stage. Then a theatrical agent, the late Selma Lynch, casually mentioned to him that she had known Gypsy's mother, Rose. Selma told him a few true tales about the ultimate stage mother and a fascinated Arthur began to visualize his musical Medea. When Arthur tried to tell his new star, Angela Lansbury, some stories about the real "Rose," she stopped him: "Don't tell me anything about that terrible woman," she warned.

Arthur says the late Gypsy Rose Lee couldn't tell him how she got her exotic nickname. When he asked, she said, "Oh, honey, I've told so many stories about it, I can't remember what's true." Arthur invented a version for his still vital musical. Later Gypsy said to the playwright: "That character of yours—'Herbie'—why, he's so good I wish I'd thought of him for my book."

The successful revival of Gypsy is a testament to the brilliance of the book, music and lyrics and to theatrical talents willing and able to fill shoes many people thought unfillable. In a time when it's fashionable to say one detests revivals, as some people say they hate cocktail parties, Lorelei, Candide and Gypsy are lovely rebukes to such generalizations.

"SEESAW" COMING JULY 22-AUG. 3

Can a classic play, with only two characters, be turned into an equally successful musical in its own right? An answer to this question came about approximately three years ago, and that answer was resounding "YES!"

Seesaw the musical based on William Gibson's play, Two for the Seesaw, is a big, brassy show, a tap dancer's dream, and an audience's delight. To get an idea of the size of the musical, take the original two-character play and multiply that by about twenty. Then take those forty people, have them start singing and dancing as has not been seen for years in a show, and you'll have an idea of what that musical is like.

Seesaw is, of course, a love story—a very private love story within the enormous bounds of the show. A staid, mid-western gent, Jerry Ryan, who is thinking about divorcing his wife, goes to New York in a serious effort to restore himself. There he meets and falls in love with a lively, young Broadway dancer named Gittel Mosca. Eve nthough conditions are not ideal for a burgeoning romance, both make a valiant effort, and the love affair blossoms. Gittel's friends, the kind of people who make up the excitement of New York City, add to the fun. There is David, a happy-go-lucky choreographer waiting for his big break; Sophie, a black girl with a head for comedy, and many more.

The Score to Seesaw was composed by one of Broadway's and popular music's most successful teams, Cy Coleman and the late Dorothy Fields. Their monumental efforts come across in melodies like Seesaw and He's Good for Me, which are pieces of modern Broadway soul. Combine that with a number such as Spanglish, a rousing description of the combining powers of two la nguages, and Nobody Does It Like Me, and you have a show with enough inner variation to keep it constantly moving.

And, of course, by now nearly everybody has heard of Broadway's newest classic, It's Not Where You Start. Featuring David, the choreographer, and a supporting cast of what seems like hundreds, the song fills the stage with ladders, balloons, tap shoes, and every prop and piece of showmanship possible, while the ending gets bigger and bigger!

The lack of originality in most musicals of the recent past is clearly corrected with Seesaw. Walter Kerr summed up this when he wrote "Seesaw is a love of a musical!" and you, we're sure, will love it too. Rex Reed called it "One of the best musicals I have ever seen!"

Seats are now on sale at the Box Office and you may pick yours up at Intermission for best seating.

LITTLE-KNOWN FACTS
About well-known folks

Tony Bennett doesn't drive. He gets frustrated when he arrives in a city for an engagement, and can't accept the reduced rates offered to him by rent-a-car firms . . . Sandler & Young confessed at the Westbury Music Fair: "The only thing that bothers us is when we're confused with Steve and Eydie.

Joey Adams, founder-chairman of the Actors Youth Fund, buys about 30 expensive suits a year, but favors only one which he wears until it's shiny and shabby. His wife, tired of their resembling The Odd Couple, cut off one trouser leg and replaced the pants in the closet. Joey got the message . . . Cindy Adams has unusual bulletin boards at her home and office—the floor. "Things get misplaced under my hands," she explained, "but never under my feet."

"JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR" COMING AUGUST 5 thru 24

The biggest news we have for you this year is that we will be presenting that fabulous rock opera, Jesus Christ Superstar here at Theatre-by-the-Sea, August 5 thru 24.

This outstanding show will be presented in its entirety, as done on Broadway, with a cast of over 30, a large orchestra, elaborate scenery and lighting, and specially designed costumes.

Acclaimed around the world, Jesus Christ Superstar is nothing short of brilliant—and reverent. The opera galvanizes the story and the scenes of the Passion with its own fresh imagination and vitality. It examines the story of Christ, using not only the music and language of today's young generation, but their chief symbols.

The power of the music and lyrics is evidenced by the record albums that have sold in the millions, and the hit singles that have come from the show, including "I Don't Know How to Love Him," "Supestar" and others.

The advance sale is very heavy and we advise you to buy your tickets tonight at intermission or reserve by mail or phone as soon as possible. We anticipate a huge success as we had with Hair last year, and are sorry for all the disappointed people who were not able to get tickets to that production. We cannot hold the show over beyound the advertised dates, so get your tickets today.

The history of Superstar is so well known, we will not repeat it here. However, we would like to quote from a few of the thousands of rave notices it has received.

"Webber and Rice have fused words and music into such a convincing narrative style that rock may never be quite the same again. Webber's clever sounds and rhythms (such as Latin, soft rock, ragtime, Prokofiev four-step) not only do not drown out Rice's words, but actually show an awareness of their syllabic structure. Tommy was the first, flawed suggestion that rock could deal with a major subject on a broad symphonic or operatic scale. Superstar offers the first real proof."

—TIME MAGAZINE

Superstar is the most ambitious rock composition to date . . memorable for its bold melodic contours, its multilayered rhythmic structure and its incisive characterizations of Jesus, Judas Iscariot and Pontius Pilate. The lyrics are contemporary and often idiomatic; but, as an English critic has pointed out, it is just as legitimate as Handel's version of The Messiah, which 'similarly clothed the Christian story in the language, verbal and melodic, of its day. The work is simultaneously satiric, serious and searchingly pertinent to the present."

—NAT HENTOFF, PLAYBOY.

Jesus Christ Superstar has been praised by young and old alike; both for its sincerity and its brilliance. If nothing else, its success proves that there are still people who are interested enough in hearing good music. Superstar will endure the test of time. Selections from the album have been recorded by hundreds of other artists as was the case with Hair; and the names of Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber will soon be placed in that elite circle of composers whose songs are timeless ."

MR. AND MRS. HERON

What the WHO'S WHO doesn't tell you

RESIDUALS...

by Anita Summer

Barbra Streisand was the reason for an Estee Lauder product getting an unexpected plug in a Newsweek interview. When Mrs. Robert Redford told her husband, "you looked stark, raving naked in that bed scene with Barbra in The Way We Were. What on earth were you wearing?," Robert replied: "Aramis" . . . As "Willie the Plumber," James Coco spent many hours educating his TV audience on the marvels of Drano. When his own sink backed up, he rushed for a plumber. "I had no Drano," he explained, "and if I had, I wouldn't have known how to use it."

Lynn Redgrave was chosen by No-Cal for their Iced Tea commercial, because the British are synonymous with the beverage. Iced tea, however, is unknown in England. The star of My Fat Friend revealed: "No one drinks it there. We like it piping hot, and with milk" . . . It seemed strange when Lady Brevoni chose Tony Martin, instead of an actress, to endorse their pantyhose. But their logic was irrefutable. Tony is married to long-limbed Cyd Charisse, and is an expert on what beautiful legs should look like.

In a rare, regal faux pas, faithful theatregoer Princess Margaret slapped a royal endorsement on two magazines. At her Waldorf press reception, all the guests wore identification. When the Princess saw the badge "Sylvia Koner, Redbook," she asked the wearer: "Red book! What IS a red book?" Editor Koner informed: "It's a magazine," then added, "what ones do you read?" H.R.H. replied: "Vogue and Harper's Bazaar" . . . A hobby that really paid off: It was because George Montgomery was known for building and restoring furniture that Johnson's Wax asked him to endorse their products.

MR. AND MRS. HERON

What the WHO'S WHO doesn't tell you

RESIDUALS...

by Anita Summer

Barbra Streisand was the reason for an Estee Lauder product getting an unexpected plug in a Newsweek interview. When Mrs. Robert Redford told her husband, "you looked stark, raving naked in that bed scene with Barbra in The Way We Were. What on earth were you wearing?," Robert replied: "Aramis" . . . As "Willie the Plumber," James Coco spent many hours educating his TV audience on the marvels of Drano. When his own sink backed up, he rushed for a plumber. "I had no Drano," he explained, "and if I had, I wouldn't have known how to use it."

Lynn Redgrave was chosen by No-Cal for their Iced Tea commercial, because the British are synonymous with the beverage. Iced tea, however, is unknown in England. The star of My Fat Friend revealed: "No one drinks it there. We like it piping hot, and with milk" . . . It seemed strange when Lady Brevoni chose Tony Martin, instead of an actress, to endorse their pantyhose. But their logic was irrefutable. Tony is married to long-limbed Cyd Charisse, and is an expert on what beautiful legs should look like.

In a rare, regal faux pas, faithful theatregoer Princess Margaret slapped a royal endorsement on two magazines. At her Waldorf press reception, all the guests wore identification. When the Princess saw the badge "Sylvia Koner, Redbook," she asked the wearer: "Red book! What IS a red book?" Editor Koner informed: "It's a magazine," then added, "what ones do you read?" H.R.H. replied: "Vogue and Harper's Bazaar" . . . A hobby that really paid off: It was because George Montgomery was known for building and restoring furniture that Johnson's Wax asked him to endorse their products.

NOT QUITE A LEGEND IN THEIR OWN TIME

by Douglas Brin

All the "greats" received their share of ill fortune and adverse criticism from their contemporaries during the course of their careers:

" 'See America First' last. Better still, avoid altogether the newest and worst musical in town."
—Newspaper review of Cole Porter's first show, 1916.

"I can promise anybody who visits the Garrick Theatre an interesting evening in which they will see Tallulah Bankhead make a gallant shot at a play demanding another kind of talent."
—James Agate reviewing 'Lady of the Camellias,' 1930.

"At a performance of 'Rose of Washington Square' attended by this department, the younger generation was somewhat less tolerant even of his trademark, the immortal 'Mammy.' "
—Movie criticism of Al Jolson, 1939.

From the Producer . . .

Thank you for making this one of our most successful seasons. What happens now? Well, since this is our last production this year, after September 1st we will pack away everything in storage, get all the buildings ready for our winter tenants, seal up the theatre —and then start planning for next year.

Although it is still a bit early to announce our 1976 season, we are mulling over shows we will do, depending upon their availability. They include Pippin, Grease, Over Here, Shenandoah, Irene, Absurd Person Singular, Same Time Next Year, and Sherlock Holmes.

If you would like to receive a copy of our 1976 brochure—which we mail out on May 1st, please fill out the Mailing List Coupon elsewhere in this program and leave at box office or mail in to us.

Thanks again for the wonderful support you have given us this year and in past seasons, and we look forward to seeing you next summer.

Sincerely,

Tommy Brent

What the WHO'S WHO doesn't tell you

IT'S AN ITEM

by Anita Summer

Rita Moreno, star of The Ritz, came to this country at five, after a 10-day turbulent cruise (which should have taken half that time) from Puerto Rico. Because of the storm, she and the other passengers spent all their time on deck. When she finally landed she was detained at Immigration and quarantined for the measles . . . Elizabeth McCann, producer for the Nederlanders, has a dog which thrives on eating paper clips.

Pulitzer-prize winning playwright (That Championship Season) Jason Miller has an unusual hobby. He collects keys from hotels all over the world, and mounts the more attractive ones in display cases. "I haven't been to ALL the hotels that I have keys from," he said, "but there are a group of us who trade at get-togethers and conventions." His favorite key (from Cannes) has a little bell at the end . . . When she's not working, Nancy Walker's biggest thrill is breaking her own speed record weeding her garden.

According to his daughter Lynn, Sir Michael Redgrave has a habit of laughing in the wrong places. That's why Lynn Redgrave invites her mother (not her father) to her first nights: "I want to make sure he doesn't giggle in the wrong places and throw me off!" . . . Anne Meara was once a spear-carrier in Prokofiev's opera, The Love for Three Oranges, "I really wanted to sing," she recalled, "but when they heard me SPEAK, they thought we'd all be better off if I kept my mouth shut."

MR. AND MRS. HERON

A Review For All Seasons

by Bob Edison

(If a critic you'd become
You must learn these rules of thumb:)

"The denouement's shattering, the lighting is flattering, the sets are serviceable (such lines make me nervousable), the score's inventive, the crowd's attentive, the plot line's tenuous, the ingenue's ingenuous, she's radiant, luminous, lights up the proceedings, she's shining, incandescent (sounds like meter readings), beloved star is unassailable, so she's never unavailable, her love for all is just outpouring, all of which gets pretty boring, British players have finesse, Americans are adequate, no more, no less, audience's attention is unflagging, second act's the one that's lagging, leading lady's face is sagging, orchestra is sometimes dragging, debut's auspicious, timing's propitious, motivation's murky, construction's jerky, leading lady's quirky and the play's a turkey."

(All together now, you're doing fine
Repeat the clichés, line by line:)

"The score's inventive, the theatre's attentive, the theme's compelling, some scenes need jelling, all eyes started welling, the plot bears retelling, new talent is soaring, her presence is scoring, her carriage is regal, her beauty illegal, first nighters wreathed in smiles, backers dancing in the aisles, will theatre wonders never cease? Ensemble style is of a piece, I still can hear the loud applauding, evening now's richly rewarding, insights penetrating, tedium enervating, laughs fast and furious, plot twists are spurious, loose ends abound, can't get off the ground, dancing contagious, star is upstageous, taste is appalling, soliloquy's enthralling, new find is endearing, leading lady's enduring, praise must be heaped, my heart fairly leaped, ideas are exciting, the wit is quite biting, audience entranced, author's reputation enhanced, performance provocative, staging evocative."

(These are the rules; be sure and get them
And once you do, friend—please FORGET THEM!!)

IMPORTANT NOTICE

NO CAMERAS OR RECORDING DEVICES ALLOWED IN THIS THEATRE. ANY SUCH EQUIPMENT WILL BE CONFISCATED AND HELD IN OFFICE UNTIL SHOW IS OVER.

NOT QUITE A LEGEND IN THEIR OWN TIME

by Douglas Brin

All the "greats" received their share of ill fortune and adverse criticism from their contemporaries during the course of their careers:

" 'See America First' last. Better still, avoid altogether the newest and worst musical in town."
—Newspaper review of Cole Porter's first show, 1916.

"I can promise anybody who visits the Garrick Theatre an interesting evening in which they will see Tallulah Bankhead make a gallant shot at a play demanding another kind of talent."
—James Agate reviewing 'Lady of the Camellias,' 1930.

"At a performance of 'Rose of Washington Square' attended by this department, the younger generation was somewhat less tolerant even of his trademark, the immortal 'Mammy.' "
—Movie criticism of Al Jolson, 1939.

"As we approached the theatre of 'The Good Neighbor,' Broadway, which seemed so alive only 20 minutes before, now was a vision of comparative death. The foyer did not have a single light on, and not a customer was standing at the box office."
—Edward F. Murphy, on the site of the play Sinclair Lewis both backed and directed, 1942.

"I could never, as a dramatic critic, be fair to Sarah Bernhardt, because she was exactly like my Aunt Georgina; but I could not say this at the time, because my Aunt Georgina was still alive."
—Bernard Shaw, 1938.

" 'Swiftly' is a consistently incredible piece, a little more gauche and artless than the average . . . among the performers, the young man who embodies the aforesaid sprig is what is usually and mercifully described as inadequate."
—Alexander Woollcott on a stage performance by Humphrey Bogart, 1922.

"A foreign strumpet."
—New York Tribune critic William Winter on Eleonora Duse, 1895.

"Something Borrowed, Something Blue"

Have you ever tried to costume 5 Broadway musicals in 3 months? We've been fitting our performers with dazzling costumes for years but we can certainly use your help. Those old hats, dresses, suits and coats in the attic are useful and many times precious to theatre costumers. Just recently, Jack Walsh, from Great Island, called and said he had a few hats to give the theatre. What a find! The "few hats" turned out to be beautiful 30's and 40's styled "head dresses" plus an armload of men's and women's clothes. Then, Mrs. Charles Delmonte from Westerly gave the theatre another bundle of wonderful hats. And Mrs. Bruno Agnelli of Westerly brought us a huge box of fabulous shoes. So join in and clean out your basements and attics by donating to Theatre-by-the-Sea. You may see your old dress or suit re-designed for a Broadway musical! Just call Jim Revson at 789-3051, and he'll be right over - - - - - THANKS.

HAVE WE GOT A SHOW FOR YOU !

If "Kiss Me, Kate" isn't one of the best musical-comedies we've ever produced, then we don't remember what the best musical-comedy we ever produced was called. The Cole Porter-Bella and Samuel Spewack song-and-dance show, our next attraction, has everything!

By everything, we mean a grand score, a good book and a fine cast. To these, add imaginative choreography, ingenious decor, Charles Christopher's inventive staging and John Kroner's musical direction. The sum of these is a show of shows!

A show of shows that is literate without being highbrow, sophisticated without being smarty, seasoned without being soiled and funny without being vulgar. Among its major contributions, that of Cole Porter, is foremost.

His score is his best one. From "Another Opening, Another Show", which gets the evening going, to "I Am Ashamed That Women Are So Simple", which leads into the grand finale, melody follows melody with more than Porterian profusion.

And the words are wise, as in "Why Can't You Behave", "Where is the Life That Late I Led?" and "Always True to You in My Fashion", or witty, as "I've Come to Wive it Wealthily in Padua", "Bianca" and "Brush Up Your Shakespeare".

Or romantic, as "I Sing of Love", "Were Thine That Special Face", "Wunderbar", and "So In Love Am I". Or just plain "Too Darn Hot", which we could listen to all evening.

The Spewacks have provided a book from which these grand words-and-music stem. It's a good book, telling of a traveling theatrical outfit offering Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" in unappreciative Baltimore, of all places. The audience gets a look at what goes on backstage as well as on stage and there are plenty of fireworks!

We suggest you get your tickets at intermission or after the show for one of the snappiest musicals you'll see in a long, long time!

TEN YEARS LATER - - -

On a cool evening in June, 1967 I stepped in front of the curtain at Theatre-by-the-Sea and to a hushed audience spoke about the trials and tribulations of a summer theatre producer and also about the pleasures and rewards.

I imagine the audience was hushed because they had not heard anyone speak from this stage for four years. That's how long the theatre had been closed. The ravages of time and vandalism over that period had cast a spell of pessimism over the buildings and grounds. Prior to that evening in June, many, including some present in the audience, had doubted that the curtain would actually rise again on one of the oldest and most famous summer theatres in the country. Now that they were seeing it happen, they believed. And they were vociferous with approval.

The show went well, the reviews were good, and business encouraging. Enthusiasm, talent, exciting entertainment—these were the things we felt we had to offer. The support of the audience proved we were right.

At first we presented only plays, but gradually the availability of recent Broadway hits became limited and we found our audience did not want us to just do revivals of "old hat" comedies or dramas; they required more. That is why we began, with trepidation, to produce musicals.

Musicals are expensive. The royalties are high, costumes are expensive, scenery costs often prohibitive, lighting more complicated, and the cast numbers forty sometimes instead of ten. And there's an orchestra! Of course, some producers have found a more practical way to do them. They cut the cast down to the very minimum—sometimes ten or twelve; the orchestra consists of piano and drums; costumes and scenery are often suggested. This makes sense.

Why, then, we are so often asked, do we produce these big musicals in the expansive way we do them. It is a difficult question to answer, but I believe the answer is, because of the challenge!

The weeks and months of planning, finding the staff, auditioning hundreds of actors, singers, dancers; the disappointments—(after finding a very talented performer, signing him up in March for a lead in a show that opens in July, only to have him phone a week before rehearsals start to say that he got a job, paying more, on Broadway or the road or with a larger theatre; and then the frantic search for a replacement)—all make the job a very difficult one. However, when the curtain goes up, and the musical takes shape and form, and you, the audience, smiles, laughs, roars, applauds, then we feel it was worth all the effort. And it is!

And that is why we do musicals the hard way. That is why we spend money and labor on costumes and scenery and lighting and an orchestra! But we do not do it alone! The talent we find is the other half of the partnership: The people you see on stage performing; the people backstage that you do not see—the director, the scenic people, the costume people, the lighting people, the stage hands, the Junior Company . . . who are a vital part of this theatre—young people working at their chosen profession to get the experience to break out on their own in The Big Apple! And there's the box office staff, the publicity people, the office staff, and especially the General Manager whose headaches are daily and many, and there's your producer . . .

A THEATRICAL MUSICAL MIRACLE!

THE WORLD'S MOST POPULAR MUSICAL!!

"Something Borrowed, Something Blue"

Have you ever tried to costume 5 Broadway musicals in 3 months? We've been fitting our performers with dazzling costumes for years but we can certainly use your help. Those old hats, dresses, suits and coats in the attic are useful and many times precious to theatre costumers. Just recently, Jack Walsh, from Great Island, called and said he had a few hats to give the theatre. What a find! The "few hats" turned out to be beautiful 30's and 40's styled "head dresses" plus an armload of men's and women's clothes. Then, Mrs. Charles Delmonte from Westerly gave the theatre another bundle of wonderful hats. And Mrs. Bruno Agnelli of Westerly brought us a huge box of fabulous shoes. So join in and clean out your basements and attics by donating to Theatre-by-the-Sea. You may see your old dress or suit re-designed for a Broadway musical! Just call Jim Revson at 789-3051, and he'll be right over - - - - - THANKS.

GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY — "IRENE" IS ON HER WAY!

Charm is the word for "IRENE" . . . which opens at Theatre-by-the-Sea on Tuesday, July 27 and plays through Sunday, August 8 . . . a special kind of charm, made up of equal parts of high humor, vivacity, romance and nostalgia. And, as a special attraction, "IRENE" contains some of the best-loved, most singable numbers in the history of the American musical theatre, and the dances are wild and wonderful.

In its gay, light-hearted way, "IRENE" has a peculiarly contemporary flavor. Although originally produced in 1919, this modernized, revamped version carries its age with grace and style, for combined with its Cinderella-type story is the tale of a delightful Irish lass who believed in women's lib before the term was invented.

The year is 1919. Irene O'Dare helps her widowed mother in a little music shop in the Irish neighborhood of New York City. Mrs. O'Dare, like all good Irish mothers, wants her daughter married and settled down with a decent, hard-working neighborhood fellow. Irene, in her cheerful, sunny way, feels there is more to life than that. She feels the world is bigger than Ninth Avenue. Against all tradition, she is going to be a successful business woman.

Asked to tune some pianos in a swanky Long Island estate, Irene there meets her Prince Charming (son of the owner of the estate) and is captivated by him. From then on, the story takes speed and we are introduced to a series of wacky and delightful people who, along with a large chorus of singers and dancers provide a great evening of entertainment. If you liked "No, No, Nanette," you will adore "IRENE."

Debbie Reynolds recently starred in the show for more than a year on Broadway and Jane Powell starred in the second year's engagement. We feel we have an outstanding cast for this production here at Matunuck. Hit songs from the show include "Alice Blue Gown," "You Made Me Love You," "They Go Wild, Simply Wild Over Me," 'I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," and of course, the title song, "Irene."

Charles Kondek (who directed "Fiddler on the Roof" and "Seesaw" for us) will be the director. There will be many interesting costumes designed by Marianne Powell-Parker, and some fast-moving choreography in the many dance numbers.

If you would like to forget all your troubles and relive life like it was in the "good old days", then get your tickets at intermission for "IRENE."

Coming—"CANDIDE"—August 10 thru 22

There are musicals that are smash hits, musicals that are successes, musicals that are all manner of failure right down to abject and beyond, and musicals that are legends. Leonard Bernstein's "Candide" was a legend. That is, until it was recently re-produced on Broadway. Now it is alive again and the legend has been made a reality.

It was no secret that Mr. Bernstein's comic operetta, "Candide," was not only the most brilliant work Bernstein ever composed, but also in its original version in 1956 it did not work on the stage. People bought and cherished the record album and waited patiently. Then along came the Chelsea Theatre Company with Harold Prince as Director and a new version of "Candide" evolved. Prince brought in Hugh Wheeler to provide a new book, still tenuously based on Voltaire, and while most sensibly keeping most of the original lyrics by poets Richard Wilbur and John Latouche, also enlisted the dazzling assistance of Stephen Sondheim. Mr. Prince wisely decided that this was not a conventional musical and devised a way to express the work's particular style. The result—a new musical, a fun musical, that took Broadway by storm and netted the New York Drama Critics' Award, won 5 Tony Awards, and the New York Times critic, Clive Barnes, calls it "the best score ever written for a Broadway musical!"

The idea of the story remains the same: Candide, Voltaire's perfect innocent, finds love and happiness throughout a series of cumulatively insupportable disasters. He is idiotically sustained by his faith and his love for Cunegonde, a lady much raped but pure at heart.

This is a musical of swiftly changing vignettes that take place all over the world. It is a challenge for a director, the scenic designer, the costumer, the lighting designer and the musicians. It has all the ingredients to make an evening in the theatre memorable. And what a challenge! To the best of our knowledge, we are the only summer theatre in the country attempting this outstanding work this season.

Last summer, we were one of the very few theatres that produced "A Little Night Music" and "Seesaw." The success of these two productions has given us confidence that we can do justice to "Candide."

Charles Kondek will direct. (He did our "Seesaw," "Fiddler" and others). Scenery and lighting will be by Charles Ard (who did "George M.," "Nannette," "Applause," and many other shows for us). Costumes are by Marianne Powell-Parker (who this season has done "Kate," "Dolly" and "Irene). Musical Director will be John Kroner (now in his third season at Matunuck). And the cast will be large and talented. Al Flannagan, Virginia Abbott and Martin Van Treuren (Barnaby, Mrs. Malloy and Cornelius in our "Hello Dolly"), will be featured.

All in all, "Candide" is a musical for people who like serious theatre in addition to people who just like musicals. It's a gaudy and glittering show with the right irony and a superb sense of the ridiculous. Early reservations are advisable.

NOTE: The Box Office will be open at Intermission for ticket sales and reservations.

"GODSPELL" is Final Show This Season

For the past five years, I have been urged by patrons to present "Godspell" here at Theatre-by-the-Sea. I postponed doing it because I thought it might have limited appeal. However, this past winter I saw the show off-Broadway and realized that "Godspell" is a phenomenon and that its appeal is universal. In the audience were little children, teenagers, middle-aged people and many elderly ones. Their response was unanimous — they loved "Godspell."

The stage version is different from the movie version or anything done on television, because it captures the live audience and takes it through a series of experiences that are quite overwhelming. It is light, gay, funny, and serious too, and one leaves the theatre walking on air and full of hope. Whatever your age, I urge you to see it; it is not only for the young, it is for everybody.

The show is so popular it is now in its sixth year in New York and just recently moved from off-Broadway to on-Broadway. At one time there were eight productions running simultaneously on this side of the ocean plus eight foreign companies. Overseas, audiences in Paris, Hamburg, Copenhagen, Amsterdam, Italy and Australia welcomed "Godspell" for extended stays and in London, the Archbishop of Canterbury publicly blessed the production.

"Godspell" is staged as sort of a clown show in a series of scenes, sketches, narrations, songs and dances. The actors, ten young men and women, wear clown makeup and costumes and act out the stories and parables contained in the Gospel according to St. Matthew. The show creates a festive, spontaneous, love-thy-neighbor mood. As one critic observed, "It laughs and pounds its way into your heart without pulpiteering or preachments."

The score of the John-Michael Tebblak/Stephen Schwartz musical, which won the Grammy Award, is one of the most popular of all times. There were seven English and foreign "original cast albums" made and dozens of singles and songs in albums by top recording artists, particularly the hit, "Day By Day," which is a world-wide favorite.

I believe you will like our production here at Matunuck. We will have the original scenery, costumes and properties from the off-Broadway production and our version will be directed by Tom Demenkoff, who appeared in the New York company as well as on tour. Normally we close with a play but because we feel "Godspell" is so special we are making this our final show this season. It opens on Tuesday, August 24 and will play through Sunday, September 5. There will be only one matinee—that is on Wednesday, August 25 at 2:00 P.M. There will be a special extra performance on Monday, August 30 at 8:30 P.M. Advance sales have been very heavy, so we advise you to pick up your tickets at intermission or make telephone reservations early.

Thanks for all the support you have given us this season. We hope you have enjoyed the shows and will return next year. Included in this program there is a Mailing List Form. If you are not already on our mailing list, please fill out the form and leave it at the box office or with an usher or mail it in.

Shows under consideration, depending upon availability, include "Pippin," "Grease," "Shenandoah," "A Chorus Line," "Chicago," "The Royal Family," and "Equs."

See you next summer,
TOMMY BRENT

Coming—"Guys and Dolls"—June 28 thru July 10

"Guys and Dolls" not only belongs with that aristocratic society of musicals that have had a run on Broadway of over one thousand performances, but it is also one of the very best ever produced. It is the model of what an ideal musical comedy should be. It opened November 20, 1950 on Broadway for a run of 1,200 performances. It was revived on Broadway last year, and again was a smash hit!

The script of "Guys and Dolls" is no mere libretto; everyone agrees that it can be performed purely as a play. Good though it is, the book is superbly complemented by Frank Loesser's witty and always surprising lyrics, as well as by his music, which ranges from the simple to the spectacular, from the tender "More I Can Not Wish You," to the gaudy and gorgeously strip-teasing "Take Back Your Mink." Romance, delicate irony, and whimsical humor is combined in "I'll Know," "I've Never Been In Love Before," and "If I Were a Bell." An unusual sense of humor, rare in music, sparked "A Bushel and A Peck," which flashed across the country the moment it was released. Other numbers such as synically merry title-song, "Luck Be a Lady," and "Sit Down, You're Rocking the Boat" lifted listeners clear out of their seats with their surging high spirits.

All in all, "Guys and Dolls" promises to be as exciting a production as any before. It opens on Tuesday, June 28 and will play through Sunday, July 10. There will be matinees on Wednesday, June 29 and on Wednesday, July 6. Advance sales have been heavy, so we advise you to pick up your tickets at intermission or make telephone reservations early.

NOTE: The Box Office will be open at intermission for tickets and reservations.

COMING—
"MACK AND MABEL"
—July 12 thru July 24

Excitement is the word for "Mack and Mabel" - - - which arrives on the Matunuck stage starting Tuesday, July 12 and plays through July 24 - - - a special kind of excitement that can only happen when the creators of "Hello, Dolly" (Jerry Herman and Michael Stewart) once again combine their talents in a big, brassy, song and dance, show-biz musical, about Hollywood in the good old days.

"Mack and Mable" is the story of the on-again, off-again romance between movie director Mack Sennett (creator of the Key-Stone Cops) and his star, Mabel Normand. Covering a time span from 1910 to the late 1930's, "Mack and Mabel" is full of songs and dances of the period that are wild and wonderful. Tap-dancing and cake-walking fill the stage with vitality and nostalgia. Full of colorful scenery and glittering costumes, "Mack and Mabel" promises to be one of our most fun-filled productions this summer.

If you would like to forget all your troubles and return to the time when "movies were movies," then get your tickets at intermission for "Mack and Mabel!"

"SOMETHING BORROWED, SOMETHING BLUE"

Have you ever tried to costume 4 Broadway musicals and 2 plays in 3 months? We've been fitting our performers with dazzling costumes for years but we can certainly use your help. Those old hats, dresses, suits and coats in the attic are useful and many times precious to theatre costumers. For instance, Jack Walsh, from Great Island, called and said he had a few hats to give to the theatre. What a find! The "few hats" turned out to be beautiful 30's and 40's styled "head dresses" plus an armload of men's and women's clothes. Then, Mrs. Charles Delmonte from Westerly gave the theatre another bundle of wonderful hats. And Mrs. Bruno Agnelli of Westerly brought us a huge box of fabulous shoes.

So join in and clean out your basements and attics by donating to Theatre-by-the-Sea. You may see your old dress or suit redesigned for a Broadway Musical! Just call Michael Bush at 789-3051, and he'll be right over - - - - - THANKS!

COMING—"MY FAIR LADY"

July 26 thru August 7

Blow the trumpets and break out the champagne, because on Tuesday, July 26 through August 7, the stage at Matunuck will be filled with one of the masterpieces of the American musical theatre, when Tommy Brent proudly presents a 20th anniversary production of the world's greatest musical, "My Fair Lady." Based on George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," "My Fair Lady" has been acclaimed world wide, and for those who love intelligence, wit, elegance and melody in the theatre—whether they have seen it or not—"My Fair Lady" proves to be irresistible.

Written by the incomparable team of Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, "My Fair Lady" has a book so intelligent, witty, ironic and romantic, that it would have delighted the Bernard Shaw who provided the original. Listen to the more than a dozen songs—"The Rain in Spain," "I Could Have Danced All Night," "Wouldn't It Be Loverly," "On the Street Where You Live," "Get Me to the Church On Time," and many more—so inspiredly simple, so varied in their feelings, so singable, listenable and unforgettable, that the notes cling to your hearts like flower petals.

So for those who would like to spend as enchanting an evening in the theatre as possible, pick up your tickets at intermission for "My Fair Lady." Advance sales have been strong, and early reservations are advisable. You won't want to miss it—it's "abso-bloomin-lutely terrific!"

P.S. An extra matinee has been added for Thursday, July 28 at 2:00 P.M. due to the heavy demand for tickets.

Have you ever tried to costume 4 Broadway musicals and 2 plays in 3 months? We've been fitting our performers with dazzling costumes for years but we can certainly use your help. Those old hats, dresses, suits and coats in the attic are useful and many times precious to theatre costumers. For instance, Jack Walsh, from Great Island, called and said he had a few hats to give to the theatre. What a find! The "few hats" turned out to be beautiful 30's and 40's styled "head dresses" plus an armload of men's and women's clothes. COMING — "THE ROBBER BRIDEGROOM"

August 9 thru 21

One of the most original and delightful musical comedies to come out of New York in years, "The Robber Bridegroom," will invade the Matunuck stage on August 9 through 21, with all the fun and sass of a hoe-down. A sort of American fairy tale, it is a show that is so lively and racy, and with songs and dances that are so engaging, that the evening is like a breath of fresh air.

Based on a Eudora Welty novella, it tells the story of a Mississippi "Robin Hood" of perhaps a century ago, who cunningly befriends a rich planter and finds himself engaged to the planter's seemingly ugly daughter around the same time that he, in his robber's disguise, has found love in the woods with a young beauty who is really the "ugly" daughter. Throw in Robert Waldman's wonderful score and Albert Uhry's book and lyrics, an on-stage band, barn-raising dances, and a bodiless head that sings, and you've got the ingredients for a super summer evening in the theatre.

The production here at Theatre-by-the-Sea will be the first since Broadway and is being directed by Mary Porter Hall, of the New York production, and promises to bring the same magic here to Matunuck. Tickets are now available, and may be purchased at the box-office during intermission. But hurry, word travels fast that this one is a real "humdinger!"

Final Show This Season !
"THE ROYAL FAMILY"
Aug. 23 thru Sept. 4

We are going to end our season this summer with one of the most popular and successful comedies to hit Broadway. It is "The Royal Family," which took Broadway by storm when it was recently revived and got raves from the critics across the country this past winter.

Written by that great team of comedy writers, the late George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber, "The Royal Family" tells the story of a very famous acting family back in the 1920's. What goes on in their busy New York town house makes for some lively and hilarious situations. A whole troupe of interesting and amusing characters are introduced and the authors have a field day with dialogue that holds up today as well as when it was first written.

Featuring NIKKI BRUNO and directed by ARTHUR WALSH, "The Royal Family" will bring to a close the 44th season of Theatre-by-the-Sea, and we hope you will be on hand to bid us farewell until next summer.

Tickets are on sale at the box office at intermission or may be ordered by mail or phone.

"SOMETHING BORROWED, SOMETHING BLUE"

Have you ever tried to costume 4 Broadway musicals and 2 plays in 3 months? We've been fitting our performers with dazzling costumes for years but we can certainly use your help. Those old hats, dresses, suits and coats in the attic are useful and many times precious to theatre costumers. For instance, Jack Walsh, from Great Island, called and said he had a few hats to give to the theatre. What a find! The "few hats" turned out to be beautiful 30's and 40's styled "head dresses" plus an armload of men's and women's clothes. Then, Mrs. Charles Delmonte from Westerly gave the theatre another bundle of wonderful hats. And Mrs. Bruno Agnelli of Westerly brought us a huge box of fabulous shoes.

So join in and clean out your basements and attics by donating to Theatre-by-the-Sea. You may see your old dress or suit redesigned for a Broadway Musical! Just call Michael Bush at 789-3051, and he'll be right over - - - - - THANKS!

Coming—"SHENANDOAH"—June 27 thru July 16

We have been fortunate to get the rights to present the recent Broadway musical, "SHENANDOAH," for the first time in this area.

Based on the movie that starred James Stewart, "SHENANDOAH" is set in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, where Charlie Anderson, a widower, with six sons and a daughter, farms 500 acres of good land. When the Civil War begins, Charlie is indifferent, but when his youngest son is kidnapped, it becomes quite clear the Andersons will become very involved. And they do.

Despite the serious theme, this musical has much humor and fun and gives a glimpse of life as it was in the South many years ago. There are nineteen musical numbers and some stomping, thigh-slapping, open-air dances styled in the mode of Agnes DeMille.

Music and lyrics are by Gary Geld and Peter Udell, the team that gave us "Purlie." The book has been adapted by the original screenwriter, James Lee Barrett.

Broadway audiences packed the Alvin Theatre nightly for almost three years to see this moving American musical that won the Tony Award in 1975. We are pleased to bring you our version of this exciting show June 27 through July 16.

Tickets are available now and moving fast. For your convenience the Box Office will be open at intermission. See you at "SHENANDOAH!"

Coming "THE KING AND I"—July 18 thru Aug. 6

Due to the heavy demand for tickets already received, we suggest you get your seats at once for "The King and I" which we will be presenting here July 18 thru August 6.

The meeting of The King of Siam and Anna Leonowens, which serves as the basis for this classic musical, really did happen! And we know about it from the diaries of Mrs. Leonowens, which were published shortly after her return to England from Southeast Asia in the 1860's.

Time has proven Mrs. Leonowens a rather fanciful historian, but her story has endured for over a century in the form of a novel, two motion pictures, a television series, and most magnificently in "The King and I."

The show first opened on Broadway in 1951 and played 1,246 performances. Its triumph was repeated in London where it played for over two years. It has been performed all over the world and a revival is currently in its second year on Broadway.

The Rodgers and Hammerstein musical numbers have become popular classics: "Getting to Know You," "Whistle a Happy Tune," "Hello, Young Lovers," and "Shall We Dance" are only a few of them.

We are putting forth all our efforts to make "The King and I" one of our most beautiful and exciting productions and believe you will find this evening of theatre fascinating. Tickets will be on sale at intermission for your convenience. Don't miss it!

"PIPPIN" COMING AUGUST 8th thru 27th!

"Leave it to Theatre-by-the-Sea to do the impossible—and they do!" said one critic when he saw our production of "Candide" a few years ago. And now he asks "How can you do a production of 'The King and I' in two weeks?" Then he came and saw we did! And now he ponders over our production of "Pippin" which is opening on August 8 and plays through August 27.

We can understand his consternation. "PIPPIN" will be one of the most beautifully designed and elaborately staged productions to be presented on this stage. We are fortunate to have Gary Prianti with the assistance of J. Robin Modereger creating the scenery, and Joseph Bigelow designing the outstanding costumes and special paraphernalia. And there's Jeff Davis' magical lighting and Brett Thomas' shop and crew who execute the intricate designs.

Charles Kondek has directed (he did "Seesaw," "Irene," and "The Fantasticks" among other shows for us); choreography is by Jerry Yoder (who also did "Seesaw" and "Mack and Mabel" and others); and we have Suzanne Kane as Assistant Choreographer and Robert Foreman as Production Stage Manager to move this fabulous musical, and Leon Odenz as Musical Director, and we could go on and on. So we know we will have another great show beginning August 8.

What is "PIPPIN" about? That's what a lot of people are asking. Well, it is about an extraordinary young man named Pippin, son of a great Emperor, talented and handsome. Yet he feels the "need to be completely fulfilled." He tries war, sex, revolution, and domesticity. He finally settles for the latter when he finds he cannot change the world to meet his wishes. But his life, as related in this story, is more the stuff of show biz than history.

Fabulous dancing, spectacular staging, great scenic and costume effects, and musical numbers galore will keep you captivated as it has thousands of Broadway theatregoers who kept "PIPPIN" running in New York for over three years to capture the Tony Award as the Best Musical of the Year! Other writeups in our lobby give more details.

We are proud to take the challenge and give you our version of this great musical hit! Tickets are on sale at intermission.

"EQUUS" Final production this season — AUG. 29-SEPT. 10

For the past three years we have been frequently asked, "When are you going to do EQUUS"? We are happy to announce it will be our next production. It will play August 29 through September 10, and will be our final show this season.

Peter Shaffer, the author, explains how he happened to write the play: "One weekend over two years ago, I was driving with a friend through bleak countryside. We passed a stable. Suddenly he was reminded by it of an alarming crime which he had heard about recently at a dinner party in London. He knew only one horrible detail, and his complete mention of it could barely have lasted a minute— but enough to arouse in me an intense fascination.

"The act had been committed several years before by a highly disturbed young man. It had deeply shocked a local bench of magistrates. It lacked, finally, any coherent explanation.

"A few months later my friend died. I could not verify what he said, or asked him to expand it. He had given me no name, no place, and no time. I don't think he knew them. All I possessed was his report of a dreadful event and the feeling it engendered in me. I knew very strongly that I wanted to enterpret it in some entirely personal way. I had to create a mental world in which the deed could be made comprehensible.

And that is what EQUUS is about. It won the Pulitzer Prize and the Tony Award as Best Play. It has received unqualified raves in London, New York, and across the country. We are proud to present the original stage version of this exciting play here at Theatre-by-the-Sea. Advance sales have been heavy. If you plan to attend we advise you to get your tickets at intermission tonight or order immediately by mail or phone. From all indications, it will be a sell-out!

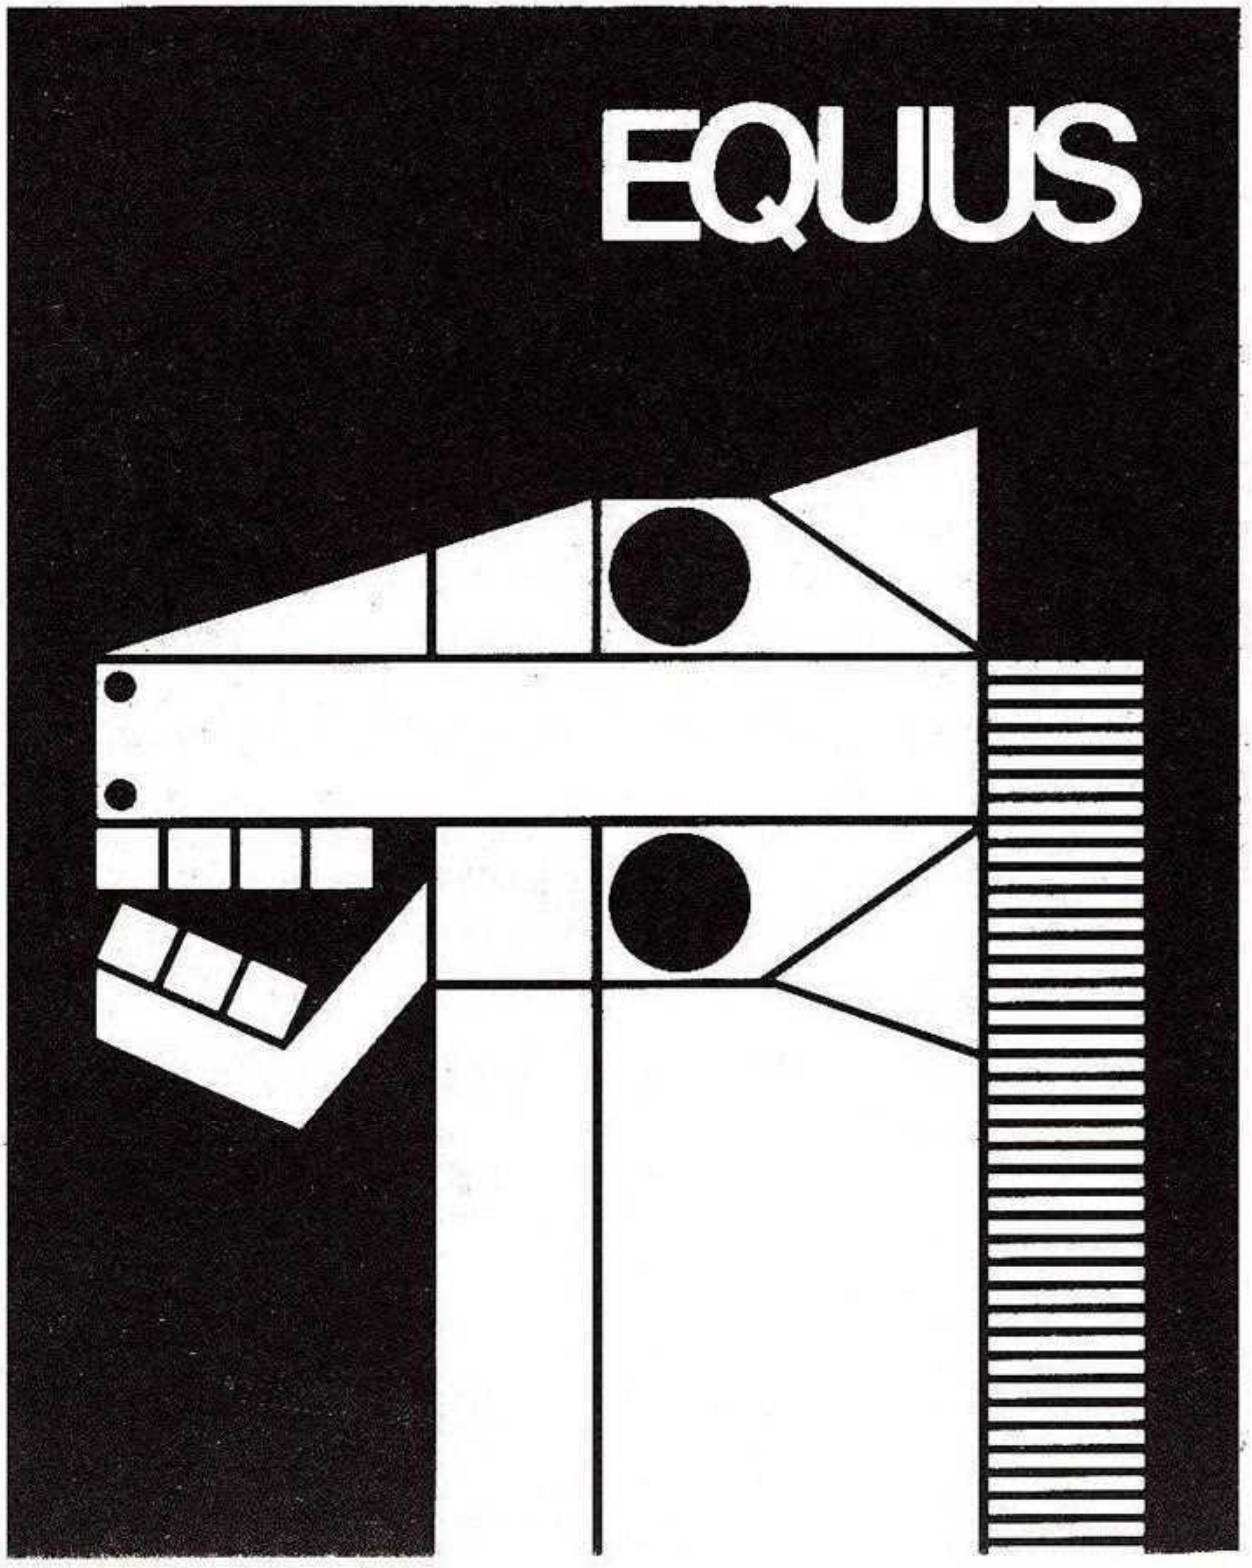
THEATRE by the Sea

Matunuck, Rhode Island

1978 Season

EQUUS



To Our Audience . . .

Thank you once again for making our summer at Theatre-by-the-Sea a successful and happy experience. Your great support this season has made it possible for us to create the type of theatre we desire and we hope we have given pleasure and enjoyment to you this summer.

Everyone is asking what we plan to present next year. Any present shows are naturally tentative. However, we know what we want to present, and if the rights can be had, we hope to do "GREASE," and "CHICAGO," and will choose from "I LOVE MY WIFE," "MAN OF LA MANCHA," "WEST SIDE STORY," and "GODSPELL." But we are keeping our schedule open for the latest Broadway releases available to us, so we won't know our final program until early March of 1979.

If you would like to receive an advance notice of our schedule in March, please fill out the form in this program and leave at the box office or mail it in to us. List your winter address.

If, this summer, you found you were not able to get tickets for the performances wished, or did not get the exact seats you preferred, we suggest that next summer you become an early subscriber. In this way, you will get both.

Thanks again for your support and we look forward to seeing you next summer.

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT & COMPANY

A Note on the Play

One weekend over two years ago, I was driving with a friend through bleak countryside. We passed a stable. Suddenly he was reminded by it of an alarming crime which he had heard about recently at a dinner party in London. He knew only one horrible detail, and his complete mention of it could barely have lasted a minute—but it was enough to arouse in me an intense fascination.

The act had been committed several years before by a highly disturbed young man. It had deeply shocked a local bench of magistrates. It lacked, finally, any coherent explanation.

A few months later my friend died. I could not verify what he had said, or ask him to expand it. He had given me no name, no place, and no time. I don't think he knew them. All I possessed was his report of a dreadful event, and the feeling it engendered in me. I knew very strongly that I wanted to interpret it in some entirely personal way. I had to create a mental world in which the deed could be made comprehensible.

Every person and incident in "Equus" is of my own invention, save the crime itself, and even that I modified to accord with what I feel to be acceptable theatrical proportion. I am grateful now that I have never received confirmed details of the 'real' story, since my concern has been more with a different kind of exploration.

I have been lucky, in doing final work on the play, to have enjoyed the advice and expert comment of a distinguished child psychiatrist. Through him, I have tried to keep things real in a more naturalistic sense. I have also come to perceive that psychiatrists are an immensely varied breed, professing immensely varied methods and techniques. Martin Dysart is simply one doctor in one hospital. I must take responsibility for him, as I do for his patient.

COMING — "THE SOUND OF MUSIC"
June 19 thru July 8

THE SOUND OF MUSIC is one of the best known and best loved musicals of stage and screen. Through Rodgers and Hammerstein's rich and varied music, the story of Maria—the candidate novice, the governess of seven vivacious children, and finally as the Baroness von Trapp—is brought to life. Such memorable songs as "Climb Every Mountain", "My Favorite Things", and "Do Re Mi" will have you whistling long after you leave the theatre.

Brought once again to the Theatre-by-the-Sea by popular audience request, advance sales for THE SOUND OF MUSIC are heavy. Early reservations for this classic musical are suggested. For your convenience the Box Office will be open during the intermission, or make reservations by calling (401) 789-3051.

COMING NEXT—MAN OF LA MANCHA
July 10th thru July 29th

Don Quixote is a mad, affecting figure who has materialized from the pages of Cervantes to the American stage in the hit musical play "MAN OF LA MANCHA." Opening at Theatre-by-the-Sea on July 10, this ingenious, song-filled tale is one that can be called a masterpiece.

Quixote believes life is worth living. He tilts at windmills and returns battered, with a sword that resembles a corkscrew. He mistakes a muleteer's cheap inn for a castle. He mistakes a common kitchen scullion for his beautiful lady Dulcinea. But he continues on his quest, ready for any derring-do.

Much of it is high comedy, laced with slapstick and much of it is genuinely touching. The music is outstanding. "The Impossible Dream" has become one of the best known songs of our time - - - and the finale is one of the most moving and beautifully written in the musical theatre today.

"MAN OF LA MANCHA" won all critical awards. It has received five TONY Awards as well as the New York Drama Critics Award. We are proud to again present the original Broadway stage version here at Theatre-by-the-Sea. Seven years ago we had a complete sell-out with our original production of this great musical. At this time advance sales are very heavy. If you plan to attend we advise you to purchase your tickets during intermission, or order immediately by mail or phone. From all indications it will be a sell-out!

A NOTE ON MIGUEL DE CERVANTES

Like his contemporary, William Shakespeare, Miguel de Cervantes y Saavedra lived a life only sparsely documented, many years of which are vieled in shadow. These things are known: he was born in 1547 to a proud but impoverished family; he was a soldier, suffered serious wounds at the battle of Lepanto, was taken captive and spent five years as a slave in Africa. Above all he loved the theatre; in 20 years he wrote some forty plays, none of which were successful. In 1597 he was excommunicated for "offenses against His Majesty's Most Catholic Church", narrowly escaping more drastic punishment. He served at least three, and possibly five terms in prison on various charges. Aging, infirm, an utter failure, he undertook the writing of Don Quixote to make money. Volume I, published in 1605 when Cervantes was 58, brought him fame, but little profit. Volume II, appearing ten years later, insured his immortality as author of the world's greatest novel, but he was already broken in body if not in spirit. He died in 1616, within ten days of the death of Shakespeare. His burial place is unknown.

COMING NEXT — CHICAGO
July 31 thru August 19

Chicago in the late 1920's - - - a time when late nights, loud music, and leggy women were the passwords to the Windy City. An era of flamboyant youth, gangsters and gin, and hijinks and hilarity. CHICAGO is the creation of Bob Fosse that took Broadway by storm and ran for three years. (Mr. Fosse is known for his choreography in PIPPIN and is presently represented on Broadway by DANCIN'). Theatre-by-the-Sea is proud to present the original version of this smash hit. Newsweek Magazine called it "The Broadway musical at its best". CHICAGO is the story of Roxie Hart, the gin mill entertainer, who dreams of stardom and rocks the city with the murder of her nonchalant lover, thus achieving her dream through the newspaper headlines. Her story is told in a series of vaudeville acts that capture all the razzle dazzle of the era. There are great songs and exciting dance numbers that make it an evening to enjoy.

CHICAGO is one musical that shouldn't be missed! For ticket reservations phone the box office at 789-3051 or mail your order to Theatre-by-the-Sea, Matunuck, R. I. 02879 - - - or stop at the box office during intermission.

THE WAY IT WAS—AND ALL THAT JAZZ

Back in 1924, a young reporter named Maurine Watkins, covered a series of murder trials in which all the suspects were women. She focused on Beulah Annan, Chicago's "prettiest prisoner". Mrs. Annan befriended another inmate, the sophisticated Belva Gaetner. Miss Watkins compared the two women often during the trials, making it clear their attempts to turn the courts into a three-ring circus.

Shortly after Beulah's acquittal, Maurine Watkins headed back East. Memories of the two trials fresh in her mind, she set to work. Out of her writing effort came the original play, "CHICAGO," based on the story of Beulah Annan.

"CHICAGO" opened in New York at the Music Box Theatre on December 30, 1926. It ran for 172 performances on Broadway and then moved to Chicago. It was there, however, that real-life murderess, Belva Gaetner, saw herself as the play's Velma: "There I am—this play's sure got our number, ain't it?"

More than forty years later, "CHICAGO" came again to Broadway. This time it was Bob Fosse's creation, based on Maurine Watkins' play. That's the way it was. And that's "CHICAGO" - - - and all that jazz.

MAN OF LA MANCHA!

For the first time in the 46-year history of Theatre-by-the-Sea, a show will run six weeks. Our production will run for an added three week engagement beginning August 21 through September 9. We are happy and proud to present the exact production as our closing show of the season. If you or your friends plan to attend it is advisable to get tickets tonight during intermission or call the box office at 789-3051 tomorrow. This means our scheduled production of "OVER HERE!" is cancelled. We hope to bring it to the stage in the near future because it is one of our favorite musicals.

WHAT'S COMING NEXT?

Everyone asks this question. Here are the shows we hope to do for next season, subject to availability:

"GREASE," "ON THE TWENTIETH CENTURY," "WHOOPEE," "I LOVE MY WIFE," and "WEST SIDE STORY."

FROM THE PRODUCER - - -

The good news came this week that the nomination to have Theatre-by-the-Sea recognized as an historical landmark has passed the R. I. State Review Board process and that the R. I. Historical Preservation Commission has forwarded our application to the National Register in Washington for approval. We are anxiously awaiting the decision. Those of you in our audience who feel inclined to help have this theatre recognized may write to Senator Pell or Senator Chafee and urge their support.

Too many old theatres are closing down—the latest being the famous Lakewood Playhouse in Skowhegan, Maine, which is one of the oldest, having been founded in 1901. While we are not that old, we can proudly claim 47 years of providing Rhode Island residents and visitors with legitimate theatre, and surviving hurricanes, fires, depressions, bad business, and everything else that normally puts theatres out of business. But the loyal support of our audiences and the diligence and dedication of the producers, owners, staffs and performers over the years have kept this wonderful old theatre alive. The 1979 season was the most successful in the history of the theatre, we are proud to say.

We are still trying to put together a history of this theatre and over the years we have collected old programs, pictures, interviews and other items and have a fascinating group of items so far. If any of you have any such material and would be willing to lend it to us to copy and use in the book we are planning, we will appreciate your contacting us and we will copy and return anything loaned back to you. And if you have programs older than 15 years, these too would be appreciated. We believe some sort of a permanent record should be made of this theatre and this booklet would also answer a lot of questions we are often asked. For instance, did you know that in 1933 a group of 24 Portuguese shipbuilders were brought here from New Bedford to put up this theatre: that none of them spoke English except the foreman, and that they brought their wives and children with them, pitched tents on the property and stayed until the job was finished? That's just one of the very interesting facts about the building in which you are now seated.

"CAMELOT"

For years we have been wanting to do CAMELOT, but always something else took its place. Now that Richard Burton is opening in the show on Broadway in early July for a limited eight-week run, the interest has been high in this great Lerner and Loewe hit. So we decided to open our production the same week and we have gathered what we consider a fine cast for this musical—Paul Dennis, whom you will remember as the father in SHENANDOAH and as Don Quixote in MAN OF LA MANCHA, will portray King Arthur. Johanna Johannson, who played the Mother Superior and the sophisticated lady friend of Captain Von Trapp in THE SOUND OF MUSIC will play Guenevere. Advance tickets are selling briskly and we suggest you order yours early.

The BACKSTAGE CLUB & RESTAURANT

When we first re-opened the theatre in 1967—14 years ago—we called our restaurant and bar THE BACKSTAGE CLUB. It was very popular and though many thought it was a private club, it was not. But that prompted us to return to the name of the Inn-by-the-Sea, for which it has been known for 47 years. Over the years we have had many different managers, as you well know, but this year we have decided to again re-open our BACKSTAGE CLUB AND RESTAURANT and take more of a personal interest in its operation. And we have been very fortunate.

Fortunate because we have one of South County's finest chefs—Marcel Beaulieu—to rule the kitchen. Marcel's fame follows him wherever he goes. He has created great food for the Meadowbrook, Old Mountain Lanes and the Sheraton Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. And he intends to do the same here in Matunuck.

Another surprise is that Marty DeStefano is returning to his old stand of managing the bar and cocktail lounge. Marty for 12 years oversaw these premises—during the '50s and '60s. He can tell a lot of stories about the many famous stars who played here and some who got their first break here. His fondness for Matunuck has brought him back to us and we hope you'll drop by and say hello at intermission or after the show.

Dan Kirsch, who was Assistant Manager of the theatre last year, will be our Restaurant Manager with Fred Cluck as Assistant Manager,

Our menu is varied and reasonable. The Backstage Buffet is the only one like it in South County. Regular dinners are also served. And we still have the Wednesday Pre-Matinee Fashion Luncheons and our Backstage Cabaret every evening.

We look forward to seeing you at the Inn—which is adjacent to the theatre—and at our next production—CAMELOT.

ON THE 20th CENTURY

Every year we do one big splashing musical that no other summer theatre is doing. Last year it was "Chicago." Another was "Seesaw." Another, "Applause." This summer it is "ON THE TWENTIETH CENTURY." Everyone asks "What's it all about?" Well, it opened on Broadway in 1978 with John Cullum. Madeline Kahn and Imogene Coca starred, and won five Tony Awards as Best Musical of the Season. The book and lyrics are by Betty Comden and Adolph Green (authors of "Applause," "Wonderful Town," "Bells Are Ringing," etc.) The music is by Cy Coleman (who composed music for "I Love My Wife," "Seesaw," "Sweet Charity" and others). Rex Reed called it "a blockbuster of a musical. The brand spanking new show that we've all been waiting for!" And Clive Barnes of the N.Y. Times agreed, saying "a perfect musical! A riotously funny romantic extravaganza; a lovely score; from start to finish this is a gorgeous show!"

- - - to those of you who have given us clothing for costumes in the past. We can still use clothing of any period; also tuxedos, gowns, uniforms, and any accessories or materials you no longer have use for. Just phone Mr. Cromarty at the theatre and we will come visit you. Thanks!

The scene is the 1930's; the theme is Show Business. A famous producer opens a show in Chicago and it flops. He has to get out of town fast. So he takes the 20th Century train back to New York. For those who are not old enough to remember, the 20th Century was one of the most famous trains America has produced. Songs, plays, movies and musicals have been written about it. It was the one that all the famous people boarded when they had to get from one coast to the other, which in show biz language means Hollywood & Broadway. On board one met a whole array of fascinating people— and that is what happens in this musical. It all takes place on board the train. A wild assortment of interesting characters are introduced and the story line carries them along while they sing and dance and perform to make a dazzling musical comedy come alive.

The 1930's period costumes and the art deco scenery were one of the highlights of the New York production as they will be here at Theatre-by-the-Sea. Charles Kondek his directed. (He did our "Chicago," "Candide," "Kiss Me Kate," "Irene," "Fiddler" and others). Musical Director is Fred Barton and Scenery is by Jeffrey Modereger—whose work you have seen in all our shows over the past four years they have been with us. Costumes are by Joseph Bigelow who designed those outstanding costumes in our production of "Pippin." Lighting is by Allen Hughes.

The cast will include Paul Dennis, whom you will remember as Don Quixote in our "Man of LaMancha," Johanna Karen-Johannson, who was the Countess in our "Sound of Music," and Jan Carr as Letitia, and, of course, our fine resident company of actors, singers and dancers. It's a large cast and a sparkling musical we feel you'll really enjoy. Don't miss it! Tickets are on sale at the box office at intermission or by mail or phone.

A LITTLE HISTORY

We are presently in the process of acquiring enough material to put together a souvenir program of Theatre-by-the-Sea that will tell its history and reproduce pictures, old programs, and give other interesting information about this Rhode Island landmark. If you have any items of interest you are willing to give or lend us to reproduce, we will appreciate it. This could be programs from 15 years ago or before, old photographs or whatever. We will copy and return your original material if you wish.

The theatre was built in June, 1933, by Mrs. Alice Tyler. Abe Feder designed the conversion of the 200-year-old barn into an auditorium and the large stage that is joined to it. Mr. Belknap of Wakefield, the contractor. He brought 24 Portuguese shipbuilders from New Bedford and the "big square box" they built like a ship—with no mechanical hoists, was over 50 feet high, 45 feet deep, and is our stage. By the first week of August the theatre was finished. The opening play was "Amourette" by Claire Kummer (author of "Her Master's Voice") on August 15, 1933, and ran for 21 performances.

The theatre is currently being considered for the National Register in Washington to be recognized as a historic landmark.

Summer visitors are always welcome at southern Rhode Island's only independent bank: — in downtown Westerly since 1800 and in the Chariho Shopping Center since 1979.

The BACKSTAGE CLUB & RESTAURANT

When we first re-opened the theatre in 1967—14 years ago—we called our restaurant and bar THE BACKSTAGE CLUB. It was very popular and though many thought it was a private club, it was not. But that prompted us to return to the name of the Inn-by-the-Sea, for which it has been known for 47 years. Over the years we have had many different managers, as you well know, but this year we have decided to again re-open our BACKSTAGE CLUB AND RESTAURANT and take more of a personal interest in its operation. And we have been very fortunate.

Fortunate because we have one of South County's finest chefs—Marcel Beaulieu—to rule the kitchen. Marcel's fame follows him wherever he goes. He has created great food for the Meadowbrook, Old Mountain Lanes and the Sheraton Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. And he intends to do the same here in Matunuck.

Another surprise is that Marty DeStefano is returning to his old stand of managing the bar and cocktail lounge. Marty for 12 years oversaw these premises—during the '50s and '60s. He can tell a lot of stories about the many famous stars who played here and some who got their first break here. His fondness for Matunuck has brought him back to us and we hope you'll drop by and say hello at intermission or after the show.

Dan Kirsch, who was Assistant Manager of the theatre last year, will be our Restaurant Manager.

Our menu is varied and reasonable. The Backstage Buffet is the only one like it in South County. Regular dinners are also served. And we still have the Wednesday Pre-Matinee Fashion Luncheons and our Backstage Cabaret every evening.

We look forward to seeing you at the Inn—which is adjacent to the theatre—and at our next production—ON THE 20th CENTURY.

"Grease" IS FINAL SHOW THIS SEASON!

After waiting seven years, we have finally gotten the rights to produce "GREASE" at Theatre-by-the-Sea. And at this moment seats are going so fast we may be sold out before the show even opens. We can only run it three weeks—August 19 thru September 7. If you plan to attend we urge you to get your tickets at intermission or as soon as possible, so you will not be disappointed as our many patrons were who could not get in to see "Oklahoma!" or "Camelot."

The season has been very successful. Next year we plan to do four shows. What they will be, we do not know at this time. We will try to pick the latest hits available from Broadway. When they become available we will do "A Chorus Line" and "Annie." But we doubt if that will be next summer; probably the following year.

41th Season 1980

AN HISTORIC LANDMARK

On July 10, 1980, the Theatre-by-the-Sea was entered on the National Register in Washington, D.C. as an Historic Landmark. We are proud of this accomplishment and hope it will mean that this theatre will be here for many generations to come. It first opened in August, 1933.

The complete history of Theatre-by-the-Sea has never been written; to our knowledge there has never been a souvenir program or any booklet that tells the story. Many newspaper and magazine articles have, of course, told much about the background. It has been our intention for the past few years to remedy this situation by printing a souvenir booklet telling the theatre's history and including many photographs. We have been collecting a lot of items such as old programs, photographs, reminiscenses, etc. to put into this booklet. Patrons of the theatre have been generous in giving items to us or lending them to be copied. Our collection is growing. If you should have any old photos or other items such as brochures, announcements, etc. or remember some interesting moment you might record on paper for us, we will appreciate it.

We have collected a lot of old programs, given to us by some of our patrons, but we do not have any programs before 1950. Programs from the 1930's and 40's would be especially welcome. Photos we would copy and return. After we close, mail addressed to us c/o Theatre-by-the-Sea, Matunuck, R. I. 02879 will reach us safely, as we are here year-'round.

New Mailing List

Due to the high cost of postage it is necessary for us to destroy our present mailing list which we have been using for several years and to start a new mailing list this year, beginning May 1st. If you wish to receive our brochure next spring, we suggest you leave your name and address at the box office, or mail it in. If you are a subscriber this summer, you have already been put on the new list. If you mailed your order in for tickets and we have your address, we will include you on the list. But, we stress again, if you wish to be on our NEW mailing list, let us know as soon as possible.

From the Producer - - -

This production of "Grease" will close the season of the 47th year of Theatre-by-the-Sea. It has been a very good season—our best so far. We wish we could do more productions but the fact that we have no heat limits the length of our season. We are now running our shows for 3 weeks and could run them 4 weeks, but it would cut out one production. To those of you who could not get seats to "Oklahoma!," or "Camelot," or "20th Century," we are sorry. We can only suggest that you subscribe to the theatre next year well in advance. Our business office opens on April 25 and we try to get our brochure in the mail to you by May. If you are not on our mailing list for 1981, fill out the form elsewhere in this program and get it to us.

We do not know what our schedule will be for next year. When "Annie" and "A Chorus Line" become available we will do them. Meanwhile we will continue to bring you the latest available hits from Broadway along with a revival of an old favorite.

Thanks for your loyal support tonight and over the years. It is because of you that this old barn theatre has survived for 47 years and will continue for many to come.

Sincerely,

TOMMY BRENT

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE...

This is our next production which will open June 23 and play through July 12. Currently running on Broadway, "Pirates" is the hottest ticket in New York. The critics and public have been raving about it and that is why we have chosen it as our second musical.

Directed by Charles Kondek (who staged "On the 20th Century" last summer) with choreography by David Holdgreive (who did the musical numbers in "20th Century") we promise you a great evening in the theatre with this Gilbert and Sullivan classic and a top-notch cast.

Bring the kids—or bring the whole family—they'll all love "The Pirates of Penzance." It's been a hit for 100 years! But get your seats early! Box office is open at intermission for your convenience.

VOLUNTEERS...

Back in 1967 when Theatre-by-the-Sea was about to see the wrecking ball, we took on the task of restoring the buildings and getting the theatre on its feet again. The first thing we did was place an advertisement in the papers for volunteers - - -and they came forth in large numbers and helped us with the great work it took to put the theatre together again. Over the years this force diminished and, except for two or three, we have not had volunteers. This year, however, we found we needed help and so we let this fact be known. The response was good and several members of the community aided us with our subscription mailing, getting housing ready, and in the costume and scenic departments. We still need help. If you have any free time to work on costumes, scenery or publicity, please call Dianne Holly at 789-1094.

ARGUMENT

When Frederic was a little boy, his nurse (Ruth) was told to apprentice him to become a pilot. She heard the word incorrectly and apprenticed him to a band of pirates, remaining with them herself as a maid-of-all-work. Although Frederic loathed the trade to which he had thus been bound, he dutifully served; and as the curtain rises, his indentures are almost up and he is preparing to leave the band and devote himself to the extermination of piracy.

He urges the pirates to join him in embracing a more lawful calling, but they refuse. Ruth, however, wishes to become his wife. Having seen but a few women, he does not know whether she is really as pretty as she says she is; but he finally consents to take her.

Just then a group of girls, all wards of Major-General Stanley, happen upon the scene. Frederic sees their beauty—and Ruth's plainness—and renounces her. Of these girls, Mabel takes a particular interest in Frederic, and he in her. The other girls are seized by the pirates and threatened with immediate marriage. When the Major-General arrives, he can dissuade the pirates only by a ruse: he tells that he is an orphan, and so works on their sympathies that they let him and his wards go free.

During the ensuing days and nights, however, this lie troubles the Major-General's conscience: he sits brooding over it at night in a Gothic ruin. He is consoled by his wards' sympathy and Frederic's plan of immediately leading a band of police against the pirates.

Meanwhile the Pirate King and Ruth appear at the window and beckon Frederic: they have discovered that his indentures were to run until his twenty-first birthday, and—as he was born on February 29—he has really had as yet only five birthdays. Obeying the dictates of his strong sense of duty, he immediately rejoins the pirates. He tells them of the deception that has been practiced upon them, and they seize and bind the Major-General.

But the police come to the rescue and charge the pirates to yield, "in Queen Victoria's name." This they do. Ruth explains, however, that these men who appear to be lawless pirates are really all "noblemen who have gone wrong", and they are pardoned and permitted to marry the Major-General's wards.

Coming Next—"BRIGADOON"—July 14 thru Aug. 2

The talent—the lyric and melodic genius of Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe did not spring full-blown with their production of "My Fair Lady." It was earlier very evident in a masterpiece of the musical stage that is still a treasured memory to a generation of theatre-goers, "BRIGADOON." This past year the revival on Broadway met with rave reviews and packed houses (at $30. a ticket, incidentally). REX REED said, "It is totally, utterly captivating!" CBS-TV claimed, "It is splendid! A sweeping melodious musical show!" and ABC-TV roared "Son of a gun, it's magic!"

About two Americans who stumble upon an enchanted village in the Scottish highlands, "Brigadoon" has an unbroken string of wonderful songs that are memorable and have become legendary in the American musical theatre: "Almost Like Being In Love," "The Heather on the Hill," "Come To Me, Bend To Me," being a few. There will be impressive scenery and outstanding colorful costumes (all designed and built here) and a cast we promise will make this evening of theatre a musical delight.

As you know, you have to get your tickets early in order to get what you want on the day of your choice. The advance sale is heavy on this show, as it is on all shows for the rest of the season. So we suggest that you get your tickets at intermission or order early by phone. The box office is open at intermission. We now have MasterCard and VISA and they are a great success.

"WEST SIDE STORY"—Next - - -

Of all the shows we are doing this summer, "West Side Story" looks like the most exciting. The dancing is absolutely fabulous. The music and songs are often breathtaking. Leonard Bernstein created some of his best music in this show. Stephen Sondheim did the lyrics and Arthur Laurents ("Gypsy") the book.

Our production will be directed by Peter Clough ("The King and I" and "Sound of Music"); choreographed by Steven Baumann (whom you may have seen in "A Chorus Line" in Boston or London); scenery by J. Robin Modereger; costumes by Tom Hansen (he did our "Pirates"); and musical direction by Fred Barton; Lighting by John Custer. And many new performers from New York.

The advance sale of tickets is very heavy. If you plan to attend we urge you to get your tickets at intermission or order by mail or phone as soon as possible. We now have MASTER CARD and VISA so you can charge your tickets at the box office or over the phone.

We are sorry we could not accommodate all the people who wanted to see "The Pirates of Penzance." At the beginning of the season we placed advertisements in the papers reminding those who could not get tickets to our shows last summer to order well in advance this year; some did and they have their tickets; those who waited again could not get in. The rush now on at the box office indicates this is going to happen for the rest of the season. We are glad the theatre is such a success, but we are very sorry every night when we have to turn people away at the box office, and we hope you are not one of them.

AN AMAZING ANNOUNCEMENT — — — —

For the first time in our history, we are going to have a WINTER THEATRE SEASON. It will happen in New London, Connecticut at the Garde Theatre and we open on Tuesday, October 20th with our production of "The Pirates of Penzance" which will play for two weeks, through November 1st. This will be followed by a series of plays and musicals to be announced.

The Garde Theatre is located on State Street, just across from the historic Court House. It is at the top of the Captain's Walk mall. All trains, buses and boats are only 3 blocks away from the theatre. The train service is so good that you can come from New York or Boston (or any of the stops in between), see a matinee or evening performance and return home the same day. Check AMTRAK for schedules.

New London is easy to reach. Just take Route 95, get off at the "Downtown New London" exit and it is five minutes to the theatre. And what a theatre the Garde is! It is large and commodious with a great big stage that can handle our elaborate productions. It was formerly a vaudeville house and was built in 1929.

For quite a while we have been looking for a winter home and feel we have found it in New London, Connecticut, which is only 45 minutes drive from Matunuck.

Our winter season will in no way interfere with our summer season in Matunuck. Theatre-by-the-Sea in Rhode Island is first and foremost.

We would like to keep you informed of our progress and send you an announcement of our winter productions when it is ready. If you are not already on our mailing list, then please fill out the form below and leave at box office or mail to us. You will then receive the winter schedule and also in April will receive our 1982 summer schedule.

ARGUMENT

When Frederic was a little boy, his nurse (Ruth) was told to apprentice him to become a pilot. She heard the word incorrectly and apprenticed him to a band of pirates, remaining herself as a maid of-all-work. Although Frederic loathed the trade to which he had thus been bound, he dutifully served; and as the curtain rises, his indentures are almost up and he is preparing to leave the band and devote himself to the extermination of piracy.

"Pirates of Penzance" is presented by special arrangement with G. Schirmer, N.Y.C./London

AN ANNOUNCEMENT - - -

This production of "The Pirates of Penzance" is the first presentation sponsored by the Garde Theatre and Performing Arts Center. The purpose of founding this organization is to preserve and improve the present theatre and its facilities and to bring to this area cultural and educational events that would otherwise be denied residents of Southeastern Connecticut and nearby communities.

Drama, music, dance, art and artists is what this is all about. We hope to produce shows and concerts and to book well-known artists and events, thus making it not necessary to travel to New York or Boston to see live theatre. The theatre will also be made available to community organizations and to local artist groups such as symphony, opera and dance companies. Theatre for young people is also planned. We hope to make this an exciting arts center for the area.

Theatre-by-the-Sea has decided to postpone the three shows planned to follow this production of "Pirates." Extensive improvements to the stage area prevented access to that space until a week ago, making it impractical to have two productions in rehearsal and preparation at the same time—which was necessary to keep the planned schedule. They do plan to bring more of their productions to the Garde and if possible establish a resident company here.

Meanwhile we now have a fully equipped stage in top condition and able to handle Broadway touring shows. Now our efforts will be spent in establishing the foundation with strong support and pursue the goal of bringing you live, exciting theatre.

NOTE:

Anyone who has already purchased tickets to "Brigadoon", "West Side Story", or "Ain't Misbehavin'" may get their refund by returning the tickets to the box office in person or by mail.

Coming Next: Ain't Misbehavin'!—June 22 - July 11

"Ain't Misbehavin'" opened on Broadway on May 9, 1978, and instantly made history. Within four weeks this "stompin', struttin', high-hattin' smash" (Time Magazine) won every award a musical can win in a Broadway season: the Tony Award for Best Musical, the N.Y. Drama Critics' Circle Award, the Outer Critics' Circle Award and many more since it began its life in the cabaret of New York's Manhattan Theatre Club.

"The opening-night audience almost knocked the roof off with cheers. 'Ain't Misbehavin' is Broadway's new blockbuster!" reported William Glover in the Associated Press the morning of May 10. And for the first time in recent memory all the critics were ecstatic. "What whistles, hoots, throws off sparks and moves at about 180 miles an hour even though it is continually stopped by applause? 'Ain't Misbehavin', a funny, devastating, startlingly beautiful, heart-stopping show," wrote Richard Eder in the New York Times. "To put it as judiciously as possible, it has a first act that will knock your ears off and a second that will come back for the rest of you," said Walter Kerr in the Sunday Times. And the raves went on and on . . .

We have found what we feel is a great cast for this whale of a show and an orchestra to match. As you know, you have to get your tickets early in order to get what you want on the day of your choice. The advance sale is heavy on this show, as it is on all shows for the rest of the season. So we suggest that you get your tickets at intermission or order early by phone. The box office is open at intermission. We now have Master Card and VISA for your convenience.

Coming Next—"SWEENEY TODD"—July 13-Aug. 1

Why did we decide to do the first summer theatre production in America of "Sweeney Todd"? It is very difficult to do, expensive, challenging, controversial; but it is also extraordinary, fascinating, sensationally entertaining, very funny with the most melodic score of Stephen Sondheim's career and singing that will thrill you. And, as you know, it is typical of this theatre to often take on what is thought to be the "impossible." We love the show; we think you will too; that's the reason we are doing it. Rex Reed agrees: "It is a work of such scope and vision and daring that it dwarfs every other Broadway musical!" The New York Times said: "There is more excitement in 'Sweeney Todd' than a dozen average musicals!" Clive Barnes (N.Y. Post) raved: "This is sensationally entertaining theatre . . . simply great . . . absolutely compelling!" It's a heck of a lot of fun too, so better plan to get your seats tonight at intermission or by phone tomorrow as they are going very, very fast. It's a rare opportunity to see what all the raving is about.

Coming Next — "LITTLE ME" — August 3-22

Neil Simon's first Broadway musical comedy, "Little Me," is our next production. Originally presented in 1962 with Sid Caesar in the leading role, it was revived on Broadway this past winter with Jimmy Coco. We are the first summer theatre to present it since its revival, and have always wanted to do this particular musical. It is one of Tommy Brent's favorites. Adapted from the book by Patrick Dennis (author of Auntie Mame), with music by Cy Coleman (Barnum, Sweet Charity, I Love My Wife), lyrics by Carolyn Leigh (Peter Pan), "Little Me" is a whopping, whirling musical burlesque of the memoirs of a former movie queen; how she got to the top and all the fun that happened along the way. There are great big song and dance numbers (Bob Fosse staged the original dances on Broadway), exciting costumes and scenery, and a whole gang of fresh talent to complete the action. If you liked our production of "On The 20th Century," then this is the show for you! Get your seats early—at intermission—or phone tomorrow. Don't miss it!

COMING NEXT—"WHOOPEE!"—AUG. 24 - SEPT. 12—FINAL SHOW THIS SEASON

We saved one of the best until last—It's "WHOOPEE!"—that great big song-and-dance musical that Eddie Cantor made famous back in the 1930's—both as a Ziegfeld hit on Broadway and the Sam Goldwyn movie with Ethel Shutta. Recently the Goodspeed Opera House revived the show, took it on a national tour and brought it back to Broadway. This prompted our production. You'll see great tap-dancing, nostalgic songs like "Makin' Whoopee," "Love Me or Leave Me," "My Baby Just Cares For Me," "Yes, Sir, That's My Baby," and others. Come, forget about today's troubles and re-visit the good old days when everybody was making WHOOPEE! This is our final show this season and early reservations are advised.

ABOUT NEXT SUMMER - - -

Thank you for making this season another successful one. We will open next year in early June and try to bring you some of the best musicals from Broadway. "Sugar Babies," "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," "Dancin'," "They're Playing Our Song," "Barnum," and "Annie" are among the shows we have under consideration (depending upon their availability). To get the earliest information and the best seats for 1983 make sure you are on our mailing list. We will mail you our schedule in April. Subscribers save money and get the best seats. Ask anybody! And next year will be our Fiftieth Anniversary Season!
Subscribe and help us celebrate!

Here Comes the "Show Boat"

A colorful segment of the American musical theatre will land on our stage the weeks of June 21 through July 17—"SHOW BOAT." With it will come all the excitement and memorable music of the Jerome Kern/Oscar Hammerstein creation. Based on the popular novel by Edna Ferber, this saga of the Cotton Blossom, one of the picturesque floating theatres that used to ply the Mississippi and Ohio rivers has all the magical elements that make live theatre so thrilling.

"Make Believe," "Ol' Man River," "Why Do I Love You," "Bill," are only a few of the songs that have become classics over the years. Captain Andy and his show boat troupe of singers, dancers and actors make for a lively show. And Julie and Magnolia, Ravenal and Joe sing their hearts out to a spellbound audience.

Currently playing to packed houses on Broadway, "Show Boat" has again received nationwide praise. And we have gathered what we feel is an outstanding cast to present this glorious musical here at Theatre-by-the Sea. The advance sale is very heavy and tickets are going fast, so if you plan to attend, we suggest you make your reservations or pick up your tickets at intermission or after the show tonight.

"ANNIE" is coming to Matunuck!

After waiting 6 years!—while it broke all records on Broadway, on the road, in the movies — we finally can present our version of one of the greatest blockbuster musicals in history!—"Annie" opens on July 19 and plays through August 21. And we'll have them all here—Annie, Daddy Warbucks, Miss Hannigan, FDR, Grace, Rooster, all the kids and, of course, Sandy, and a whole gang of singing, dancing, wonderful performers! You must reserve early for this show, or you'll never see it! Seats are going fast! Get your tickets at intermission or make reservations by phone, tomorrow!

WARNING
The photographing or sound recording of any performance or the possession of any device for such photographing or sound recording inside this theatre, without the written permission of the management, is prohibited by law. Violations may be punished by ejection and may render the offender liable for money damages.

"BARNUM" FINAL SHOW THIS SEASON!

As you now realize, those who get their tickets well in advance get the best seats, or are able to get in at all, to see our productions. We are sorry we have to turn away people daily who want to attend. If you wish to see "BARNUM," we urge you to get your tickets at intermission or make your reservations then. We are running this show only three weeks and the advance sale is already very heavy. This will be one of the most fabulous productions we have ever staged. The circus will come alive in our theatre! Acrobats, clowns, tightrope walkers, jugglers, musicians, and wonderful songs, dances and music tell the story of P. T. Barnum and his greatest show on earth! A smash hit on Broadway, with lyrics by Michael Stewart ("Hello Dolly"), music by Cy Coleman ("Little Me"), this sparkling, bright, colorful extravaganza will dazzle you. Don't make the mistake of trying to get tickets after they are all gone. Do it tonight! You'll be glad you did!

MAILING LIST:

If you are not already a subscriber or if you did not receive our brochure automatically this Spring, then fill in the form on next page and we will send you our schedule of shows for 1984 as soon as we know them (in April). Subject to availability, our season will be chosen from "A Chorus Line," "Evita," "Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," "Sugar Babies," "Sophisticated Ladies," and any other late, hot Broadway production. Of course, if you subscribe next summer you will get the best seats and get our schedule before it is released to the general public or press—in early March.

Coming Next: The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas

JULY 17th thru AUGUST 19th

After a long run on Broadway, several tours across the country and being made into a movie, this hilarious musical will be presented for 5 record-breaking weeks here at Theatre-by-the-Sea. Bill Hardy, who originated the leading role of the Sheriff in Texas and has played the role over 800 times (with Alexis Smith, Barbara Eden and others) will direct our production and Suzanne Fletcher, who was in the Broadway production for the entire run, will choreograph. So if you love gut-bustin' laughin', hoe-down dancin', clap-hands singin', good-time mischief makin' fun—this is the show for you. Broadway's sexiest, funniest musical! Hold on to your Stetsons! "The best crowd-pleaser since Annie" said Clive Barnes of the New York Post. You MUST RESERVE EARLY FOR THIS SHOW OR YOU'LL NEVER SEE IT! Get your seats at intermission!

BOX OFFICE open daily 9:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. (Sunday 10:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. and Monday 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.)

"Woman of the Year" is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., N. Y. C.

An Important Announcement!

We need your help!

For 51 years, Theatre-by-the-Sea has been self-supporting. We have never asked for nor received any grants, gifts or bequests. Other theatres operate on a not-for-profit status and are supported by contributions from state and federal governments, corporations, businesses, friends and patrons. We have survived from box office sales alone. But now, changing times and economics have taken their toll and we also must ask for help in order to survive.

The THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA PERFORMING ARTS FOUNDATION has been formed under Rhode Island rules and regulations for non-profit organizations. Its purpose is to raise funds and to oversee the much-needed restoration and repairs of the theatre and adjacent buildings and grounds. We hope to install a heating and air-cooling system, new seats, new rest-rooms, expanded box office, improved backstage area, new lighting and sound systems, landscaping, and many other things.

It is our plan to expand the theatre season far past the existing 14 weeks; to have dramatic, dance, opera, film and other festivals during the year, all created here. In the future we would like to provide space for our actors and staff to live, rehearse and work.

Determination and hard work will be necessary to make all this happen. That is what has made this theatre survive. We shall continue to forge ahead in our pursuit of excellence, but now need your help to perpetuate the dream which Alice Jaynes Tyler had 51 years ago when she envisioned a "Theatre-by-the-Sea" on the windswept shores of her farm here in Matunuck, Rhode Island.

We hope you will help. Please fill out the form below and mail it to us as soon as possible.

Gratefully,
TOMMY BRENT, Producer

An Important Announcement!

We need your help!

For 52 years, Theatre-by-the-Sea has been self-supporting. We have never asked for nor received any grants, gifts or bequests. Other theatres operate on a not-for-profit status and are supported by contributions from state and federal governments, corporations, businesses, friends and patrons. We have survived from box office sales alone. But now, changing times and economics have taken their toll and we also must ask for help in order to survive.

The THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA PERFORMING ARTS FOUNDATION has been formed under Rhode Island rules and regulations for non-profit organizations. Its purpose is to raise funds and to oversee the much-needed restoration and repairs of the theatre and adjacent buildings and grounds. We hope to install a heating and air-cooling system, new seats, new rest-rooms, expanded box office, improved backstage area, new lighting and sound systems, landscaping, and many other things.

It is our plan to expand the theatre season far past the existing 14 weeks; to have dramatic, dance, opera, film and other festivals during the year, all created here. In the future we would like to provide space for our actors and staff to live, rehearse and work.

Determination and hard work will be necessary to make all this happen. That is what has made this theatre survive. We shall continue to forge ahead in our pursuit of excellence, but now need your help to perpetuate the dream which Alice Jaynes Tyler had 52 years ago when she envisioned a "Theatre-by-the-Sea" on the windswept shores of her farm here in Matunuck, Rhode Island.

We hope you will help. Please fill out the form below and mail it to us as soon as possible.

Gratefully,
TOMMY BRENT, Producer

Evita is based on the life of Eva Peron, the second wife of Argentine dictator Juan Peron. It is the astonishing story about a girl from the most mundane of backgrounds who became the most powerful woman her country (and, indeed, Latin America) had ever seen, a woman never content to be a mere ornament at the side of her husband, the president. Her death of cancer in 1952 at the age of 33 ensured that she became a legend—it is unlikely that even Eva Peron could have sustained her level of popularity with her beloved "descamisados" (the shirtless ones) had she lived. Peron himself lasted only a further three years in power after her death, although he did make a brief comeback as president in 1973, a remarkable achievement which sadly did little to solve Argentina's serious economic and political problems. Peron's third wife, Isabel, succeeded him as president after his death in 1974, but she is not part of our story which ends with Eva's death in 1952.

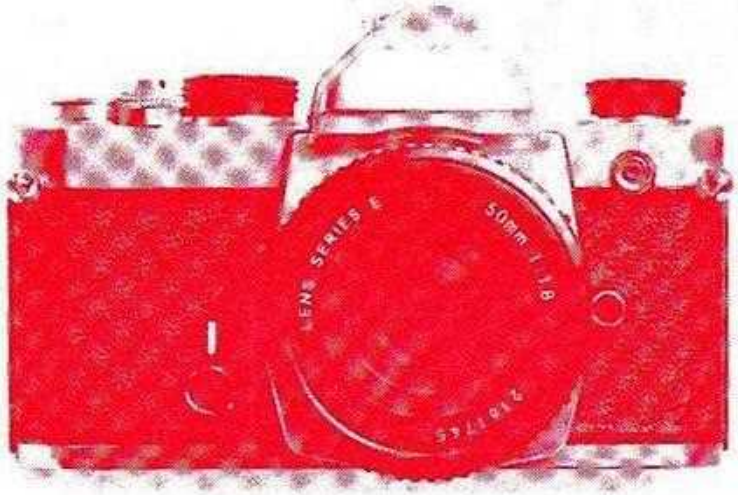
THIS IS ONE WAY TO SAVE YOUR VACATION.



THIS IS ANOTHER.

If you run out of cash on vacation, there may not be any pictures. Because there may not be any vacation.

Which is why you should know about PAT. People's Automatic Teller.

Let's say you and the family are driving along some country road in Vermont, when suddenly the family wagon breaks down.

Now, if you were low on cash, that would be a sticky situation. But not if you had a PAT card. See, PAT is part of the MONEC system, a whole network of over 700 automatic teller machines strategically located throughout New England. And because PAT is also part of the even bigger PLUS System, you can use your PAT card at over 5,000 automatic tellers all across the country. From Bar Harbor to Disneyland.

Of course, what this also means is that if you're vacationing right here in Rhode Island, and you have an automatic teller card that carries the MONEC or PLUS symbol, you can use it to get cash immediately at any PAT location.

As you can see, when it comes to saving your summer, it's easy to warm up to PAT.

Coming Next Year!

Although we have not settled our schedule for next summer, we will choose four shows from the following, depending upon their availability. If you are not already on our mailing list, be sure to pick up a form in the lobby and give it to an usher, turn in at box office, or mail it to us and we will send you advance information next March. Thanks for your support this summer and we look forward to seeing you again in 1986.

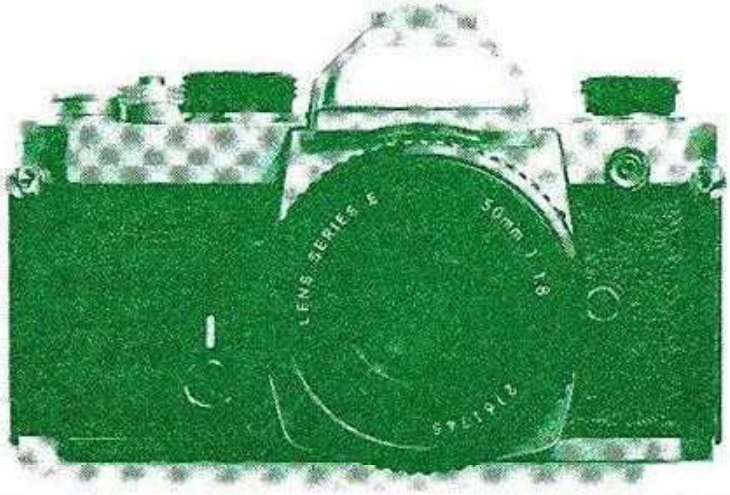
THIS IS ONE WAY TO SAVE YOUR VACATION.



THIS IS ANOTHER.

If you run out of cash on vacation, there may not be any pictures. Because there may not be any vacation.

Which is why you should know about PAT. People's Automatic Teller.

Let's say you and the family are driving along some country road in Vermont, when suddenly the family wagon breaks down.

Now, if you were low on cash, that would be a sticky situation. But not if you had a PAT card. See, PAT is part of the MONEC system, a whole network of over 700 automatic teller machines strategically located throughout New England. And because PAT is also part of the even bigger PLUS System, you can use your PAT card at over 5,000 automatic tellers all across the country. From Bar Harbor to Disneyland.

Of course, what this also means is that if you're vacationing right here in Rhode Island, and you have an automatic teller card that carries the MONEC or PLUS symbol, you can use it to get cash immediately at any PAT location.

As you can see, when it comes to saving your summer, it's easy to warm up to PAT.

Peggy (TAINA ELG) star of stage, screen and television joins the company of "On Your Toes" after completing a recent national tour of "GiGi" with Louis Jordan. Other stage credits include the Tony Award winner "Nine" where she created the role of Mamita and the uptown Circle in the Square production of "Where's Charlie?" co-starring with Raul Juila. For MGM, she was featured in "Les Girls," "Watusi," "Imitation General" and "The Prodigal." Miss Elg was featured in the Alfred Hitchcock film classic, "The 39 Steps" and appeared opposite Lloyd Bridges in the acclaimed T.V. movie, "The Great Wallendas." Day time television viewers will remember her from appearances on "The Guiding Light," "One Life to Live" and "The Doctors."

THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA
PERFORMING ARTS FOUNDATION Ltd.
P. O. Box 1501, Kingston, R. I. 02881

Dear Friend of the Theatre:

The Theatre-by-the-Sea Performing Arts Foundation is now in its second year, having been formed in May of 1984 as a non-profit organization dedicated to the restoration and improvement of these buildings, which are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and to the development of performing arts at Theatre-by-the-Sea which is now in its 53rd year.

In the short time the Foundation has been in existence, the following has been accomplished:

* Secured tax-exempt status under 501(3)c provisions of the U.S. Tax Law which enables us to obtain grants and to more effectively solicit memberships and donations.

* The National Endowment for the Arts awarded the Foundation a Design Arts grant of $20,000 for the purpose of making a master plan for the rehabilitation of this historic summer theatre barn as part of a performing arts center.

* Received contributions from 250 individuals and 10 corporations.

* Planting of more than 1200 flowers about the theatre, inn and walkway by members of the Foundation.

* Development and distribution of our first brochure which describes the aims of the Foundation.

* Conversion of the theatre's subscribers and patrons lists to computer files to provide a workable mailing list for the Foundation.

* Appointment of William Warner Associates, architects and planners and Lee Pare Engineering to provide engineering and structural background, survey the theatre and outbuildings to propose structural improvements, changes in seating, installation of heating and air-conditioners, improvement of handicapped access and to deal with shortage and lack of shop and studio space.

The major step for the Foundation has been the National Endowment Award. This will be able to attract major new grants and donations; its importance emphasized by the fact that the receipt of such an award is rare and competition for these funds is extremely competitive. The NEA was very impressed by our goals and the importance of our activities with this historic theatre.

Information can be obtained from, and contributions can be made to the above address.

THEATRE-BY-THE-SEA
PERFORMING ARTS FOUNDATION Ltd.
P. O. Box 1501, Kingston, R. I. 02881

Dear Friend of the Theatre:

The Theatre-by-the-Sea Performing Arts Foundation is now in its second year, having been formed in May of 1984 as a non-profit organization dedicated to the restoration and improvement of these buildings, which are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and to the development of performing arts at Theatre-by-the-Sea which is now in its 53rd year.

In the short time the Foundation has been in existence, the following has been accomplished:

* Secured tax-exempt status under 501(3)c provisions of the U.S. Tax Law which enables us to obtain grants and to more effectively solicit memberships and donations.

* The National Endowment for the Arts awarded the Foundation a Design Arts grant of $20,000 for the purpose of making a master plan for the rehabilitation of this historic summer theatre barn as part of a performing arts center.

* Received contributions from 250 individuals and 10 corporations.

* Planting of more than 1200 flowers about the theatre, inn and walkway by members of the Foundation.

* Development and distribution of our first brochure which describes the aims of the Foundation.

* Conversion of the theatre's subscribers and patrons lists to computer files to provide a workable mailing list for the Foundation.

* Appointment of William Warner Associates, architects and planners and Lee Pare Engineering to provide engineering and structural background, survey the theatre and outbuildings to propose structural improvements, changes in seating, installation of heating and air-conditioners, improvement of handicapped access and to deal with shortage and lack of shop and studio space.

The major step for the Foundation has been the National Endowment Award. This will be able to attract major new grants and donations; its importance emphasized by the fact that the receipt of such an award is rare and competition for these funds is extremely competitive. The NEA was very impressed by our goals and the importance of our activities with this historic theatre.

Information can be obtained from, and contributions can be made to the above address.

Owner's kin to replace veteran producer Brent at Theater-by-the-Sea

By COLLEEN FITZPATRICK
Journal-Bulletin Staff Writer

SOUTH KINGSTOWN — Tommy Brent, producer at Theater-by-the-Sea in Matunuck for 21 years, has been told he must leave the theater in the fall of 1988 so that the niece of its owners can take over.

Laura Harris, 31, the niece of Susan Bontecou DuVal of McLean, Va., and Jesse M. Bontecou of Millbrook, N.Y., will begin producing summer theater in Matunuck in 1989.

Harris, who apprenticed under Brent for 12 years and whose mother, Harriett Bontecou Harris, also was an owner of the theater until her death in 1984, said the decision does not reflect on Brent's performance.

Harris said she wants to be a producer at a theater of her own.

"The time is right," she said yesterday. "But I want to stress the fact that I want to make it a smooth transition. Tommy was very important. He taught me a lot."

The 54-year-old barn theater, which has survived hurricanes and hard times, saw its most glamorous days in the early 1950s, when it boasted stars such as Judy Holliday, Mae West, Groucho Marx, Tallulah Bankhead and Marlon Brando.

It had been closed for four years and was on the verge of being bulldozed when Brent, a theatrical press agent, reopened it on June 23, 1967. Since then, he has succeeded in moving from one-week shows to four-week runs that draw thousands of people each summer.

Brent has been committed to helping young actors and actresses get started. He also is known for holding auditions for animals. The dog he cast as Sandy in Annie had puppies and returned to the stage without missing a show.

"He's a good theater man," said Lorraine Geissler of South Kingstown, who has acted at the theater. "He can pull it all together. He knows talent when he sees it. He knows the essence of a show and he knows how to make a profit."

Surprised and shocked

Brent said he was told last September that his contract would not be renewed when it expires on Sept. 30, 1988. "It happened out of a clear blue sky without any warning," he said. "I'm not bitter but I was surprised and shocked. . . . Now I accept this as destiny for me and this place. I have been told I can't produce here, so I'll have to produce elsewhere."

Harris said she feels Brent is being treated as fairly as possible. He will be offered a position with the theater, she said.

But Brent said he wants to produce summer theater elsewhere in the state. "I have a big following in Rhode Island, 6,000 loyal fans who come to see our shows."

Harris said she will continue to produce musicals during her first season, and will make no immediate changes.

Her experience includes a two-year stint as assistant producer of a summer theater, Candlewood Playhouse in New Fairfield, Conn., and co-producing a $2.5 million 1985 Broadway musical, Wind in the Willows, which ran for four nights.

Described by local actors as dedicated and professional, Harris is one of four partners in FourQuest, a theater company based in New York.

THE CURTAIN WILL FALL on Tommy Brent's long career at Matunuck summer theater next season.

Brent said he "naturally will keep up the high standards" during this season, which opened last month with Zorba, and the next. He added, "I'm looking forward to opening my next theater in Rhode Island and inviting my audience."

Journal-Bulletin arts writer William Gale contributed to this story.

Owner's kin to replace veteran producer Brent at Theater-by-the-Sea

By COLLEEN FITZPATRICK
Journal-Bulletin Staff Writer

SOUTH KINGSTOWN — Tommy Brent, producer at Theater-by-the-Sea in Matunuck for 21 years, has been told he must leave the theater in the fall of 1988 so that the niece of its owners can take over.

Laura Harris, 31, the niece of Susan Bontecou DuVal of McLean, Va., and Jesse M. Bontecou of Millbrook, N.Y., will begin producing summer theater in Matunuck in 1989.

Harris, who apprenticed under Brent for 12 years and whose mother, Harriett Bontecou Harris, also was an owner of the theater until her death in 1984, said the decision does not reflect on Brent's performance.

Harris said she wants to be a producer at a theater of her own.

"The time is right," she said yesterday. "But I want to stress the fact that I want to make it a smooth transition. Tommy was very important. He taught me a lot."

The 54-year-old barn theater, which has survived hurricanes and hard times, saw its most glamorous days in the early 1950s, when it boasted stars such as Judy Holliday, Mae West, Groucho Marx, Tallulah Bankhead and Marlon Brando.

It had been closed for four years and was on the verge of being bulldozed when Brent, a theatrical press agent, reopened it on June 23, 1967. Since then, he has succeeded in moving from one-week shows to four-week runs that draw thousands of people each summer.

Brent has been committed to helping young actors and actresses get started. He also is known for holding auditions for animals. The dog he cast as Sandy in Annie had puppies and returned to the stage without missing a show.

"He's a good theater man," said Lorraine Geissler of South Kingstown, who has acted at the theater. "He can pull it all together. He knows talent when he sees it. He knows the essence of a show and he knows how to make a profit."

Surprised and shocked

Brent said he was told last September that his contract would not be renewed when it expires on Sept. 30, 1988. "It happened out of a clear blue sky without any warning," he said. "I'm not bitter but I was surprised and shocked. . . . Now I accept this as destiny for me and this place. I have been told I can't produce here, so I'll have to produce elsewhere."

Harris said she feels Brent is being treated as fairly as possible. He will be offered a position with the theater, she said.

But Brent said he wants to produce summer theater elsewhere in the state. "I have a big following in Rhode Island, 6,000 loyal fans who come to see our shows."

Harris said she will continue to produce musicals during her first season, and will make no immediate changes.

Her experience includes a two-year stint as assistant producer of a summer theater, Candlewood Playhouse in New Fairfield, Conn., and co-producing a $2.5 million 1985 Broadway musical, Wind in the Willows, which ran for four nights.

Described by local actors as dedicated and professional, Harris is one of four partners in FourQuest, a theater company based in New York.

THE CURTAIN WILL FALL on Tommy Brent's long career at Matunuck summer theater next season.

Brent said he "naturally will keep up the high standards" during this season, which opened last month with Zorba, and the next. He added, "I'm looking forward to opening my next theater in Rhode Island and inviting my audience."

Journal-Bulletin arts writer William Gale contributed to this story.

Owner's kin to replace veteran producer Brent at Theater-by-the-Sea

By COLLEEN FITZPATRICK
Journal-Bulletin Staff Writer

SOUTH KINGSTOWN — Tommy Brent, producer at Theater-by-the-Sea in Matunuck for 21 years, has been told he must leave the theater in the fall of 1988 so that the niece of its owners can take over.

Laura Harris, 31, the niece of Susan Bontecou DuVal of McLean, Va., and Jesse M. Bontecou of Millbrook, N.Y., will begin producing summer theater in Matunuck in 1989.

Harris, who apprenticed under Brent for 12 years and whose mother, Harriett Bontecou Harris, also was an owner of the theater until her death in 1984, said the decision does not reflect on Brent's performance.

Harris said she wants to be a producer at a theater of her own.

"The time is right," she said yesterday. "But I want to stress the fact that I want to make it a smooth transition. Tommy was very important. He taught me a lot."

The 54-year-old barn theater, which has survived hurricanes and hard times, saw its most glamorous days in the early 1950s, when it boasted stars such as Judy Holliday, Mae West, Groucho Marx, Tallulah Bankhead and Marlon Brando.

It had been closed for four years and was on the verge of being bulldozed when Brent, a theatrical press agent, reopened it on June 23, 1967. Since then, he has succeeded in moving from one-week shows to four-week runs that draw thousands of people each summer.

Brent has been committed to helping young actors and actresses get started. He also is known for holding auditions for animals. The dog he cast as Sandy in Annie had puppies and returned to the stage without missing a show.

"He's a good theater man," said Lorraine Geissler of South Kingstown, who has acted at the theater. "He can pull it all together. He knows talent when he sees it. He knows the essence of a show and he knows how to make a profit."

Surprised and shocked

Brent said he was told last September that his contract would not be renewed when it expires on Sept. 30, 1988. "It happened out of a clear blue sky without any warning," he said. "I'm not bitter but I was surprised and shocked. . . . Now I accept this as destiny for me and this place. I have been told I can't produce here, so I'll have to produce elsewhere."

Harris said she feels Brent is being treated as fairly as possible. He will be offered a position with the theater, she said.

But Brent said he wants to produce summer theater elsewhere in the state. "I have a big following in Rhode Island, 6,000 loyal fans who come to see our shows."

Harris said she will continue to produce musicals during her first season, and will make no immediate changes.

Her experience includes a two-year stint as assistant producer of a summer theater, Candlewood Playhouse in New Fairfield, Conn., and co-producing a $2.5 million 1985 Broadway musical, Wind in the Willows, which ran for four nights.

Described by local actors as dedicated and professional, Harris is one of four partners in FourQuest, a theater company based in New York.

THE CURTAIN WILL FALL on Tommy Brent's long career at Matunuck summer theater next season.

Brent said he "naturally will keep up the high standards" during this season, which opened last month with Zorba, and the next. He added, "I'm looking forward to opening my next theater in Rhode Island and inviting my audience."

Journal-Bulletin arts writer William Gale contributed to this story.

Owner's kin to replace veteran producer Brent at Theater-by-the-Sea

By COLLEEN FITZPATRICK
Journal-Bulletin Staff Writer

SOUTH KINGSTOWN — Tommy Brent, producer at Theater-by-the-Sea in Matunuck for 21 years, has been told he must leave the theater in the fall of 1988 so that the niece of its owners can take over.

Laura Harris, 31, the niece of Susan Bontecou DuVal of McLean, Va., and Jesse M. Bontecou of Millbrook, N.Y., will begin producing summer theater in Matunuck in 1989.

Harris, who apprenticed under Brent for 12 years and whose mother, Harriett Bontecou Harris, also was an owner of the theater until her death in 1984, said the decision does not reflect on Brent's performance.

Harris said she wants to be a producer at a theater of her own.

"The time is right," she said yesterday. "But I want to stress the fact that I want to make it a smooth transition. Tommy was very important. He taught me a lot."

The 54-year-old barn theater, which has survived hurricanes and hard times, saw its most glamorous days in the early 1950s, when it boasted stars such as Judy Holliday, Mae West, Groucho Marx, Tallulah Bankhead and Marlon Brando.

It had been closed for four years and was on the verge of being bulldozed when Brent, a theatrical press agent, reopened it on June 23, 1967. Since then, he has succeeded in moving from one-week shows to four-week runs that draw thousands of people each summer.

Brent has been committed to helping young actors and actresses get started. He also is known for holding auditions for animals. The dog he cast as Sandy in Annie had puppies and returned to the stage without missing a show.

"He's a good theater man," said Lorraine Geissler of South Kingstown, who has acted at the theater. "He can pull it all together. He knows talent when he sees it. He knows the essence of a show and he knows how to make a profit."

Surprised and shocked

Brent said he was told last September that his contract would not be renewed when it expires on Sept. 30, 1988. "It happened out of a clear blue sky without any warning," he said. "I'm not bitter but I was surprised and shocked. . . . Now I accept this as destiny for me and this place. I have been told I can't produce here, so I'll have to produce elsewhere."

Harris said she feels Brent is being treated as fairly as possible. He will be offered a position with the theater, she said.

But Brent said he wants to produce summer theater elsewhere in the state. "I have a big following in Rhode Island, 6,000 loyal fans who come to see our shows."

Harris said she will continue to produce musicals during her first season, and will make no immediate changes.

Her experience includes a two-year stint as assistant producer of a summer theater, Candlewood Playhouse in New Fairfield, Conn., and co-producing a $2.5 million 1985 Broadway musical, Wind in the Willows, which ran for four nights.

Described by local actors as dedicated and professional, Harris is one of four partners in FourQuest, a theater company based in New York.

THE CURTAIN WILL FALL on Tommy Brent's long career at Matunuck summer theater next season.

Brent said he "naturally will keep up the high standards" during this season, which opened last month with Zorba, and the next. He added, "I'm looking forward to opening my next theater in Rhode Island and inviting my audience."

GOODBYE, MATUNUCK...

This production of "42nd Street" will be our last show to be presented in Matunuck this summer, and forever. Our lease ends on September 30 and we must be off the property the next day. This means we are now in the process of moving our scenery, costumes, props and all other possessions to our new location.

We have been fortunate to be offered a home in Warwick, Rhode Island where a new theatre is to be built for our productions. Fred Carpionato and the Carpionato Corporation plan the new theatre to be air-conditioned and heated and it will operate year-round. There will be 750 seats; an orchestra pit; a balcony; a large and comfortable lobby; a large stage and backstage area; and a "fly" system that will go even higher than our present stage so that we will be able to put on even more ambitious productions than we have done here.

There will also be a lovely restaurant, bar and cocktail lounge, large enough to accommodate the crowds who will attend the after-the-theatre cabaret performances. In other words, the whole facility will give us an opportunity to work year-round in space adequate for making scenery, props, costumes, and to rehearse both dramatic and musical productions.

Of course we will miss Matunuck. This wonderful cool air; the beautiful scenery; the beaches; the character and charm of this old barn theatre. But we will have the memories of the past 22 years - the good and the bad - and will go on into the future.

An amazing thing has happened in the past month. Abe Feder, the man who designed Theatre-by-the-Sea, oversaw its building, created this great performing space, came to visit us and returned for a second visit. He had not been back to Matunuck in over forty years, but had an urge to return and appeared to be quite thrilled that theatre was still alive and well here. And he has been very generous in giving of his time and advice to us in regard to the building of the new theatre. It has been a wonderful experience to hear about the early days of Matunuck and to review the career of this famous lighting designer and expert who designed more than 100 shows on Broadway, including "My Fair Lady" and "Camelot," and the lighting of many famous buildings across America, including Rockefeller Plaza and its famous fountain; theatre spaces in Lincoln Center and Kennedy Center, the Pan Am building, and even the first geodesic dome, created by Buckminster Fuller. How flattered we were to have this wonderful man return to Rhode Island and give his assistance to us in the planning of a new theatre that will carry on the tradition that he helped establish here 55 years ago.

Next summer, in Warwick, we plan to present "Dream Girls," "La Cage aux Folles" and other recent musical hits. In the future, when available, we will produce "Cats," "Me and My Girl," "Chess," "M. Butterfly" and "Les Miserables." Our plan is to present Broadway musicals in the summer, plays in the fall, and, during the winter, have an opera season, a dance series and a film festival. — In essence, a performing arts center and an ambitious schedule.

We will keep you informed of the shows and our progress, via our mailing list and the media. If you are not on our mailing list, please fill out the form in this program or get one from the lobby.

In closing, thank you, our loyal patrons, for helping us grow over the past 22 years, from a small group struggling to save this theatre building from being torn down (and succeeding) to becoming one of the best-known and respected summer theatre companies in the country. We are grateful.

See you in Warwick,
